BRIEF REVIEW OF THE BATTLE NEWS

Concentrating their pressure against a ten-mile line between Meteren and Voormezele the Germans on the Flanders battle front have begun a series of assaults in an effort to drive the British and French from the last of the high ground they hold in that district and thus compel the evacuation of Ypres.

(The line of Meteren-Voormezele is a crucial part of the battle zone lying across the Franco-Belgian frontier. Meteren is in France, about a mile west of Baillieu; Voormezele is in Belgium, two miles south of Ypres.)

The German thrusts in that sector followed another attempt by the Germans to break the Anglo-French front at Loos (about midway between Meteren and Voormezele). The attack broke down under the Allied fire.

Cannon are roaring over the greater part of the Flanders and Picardy battle fields, indicating that infantry fighting may break out on a grand scale in front of Amiens, northeast and southeast of Arras and in the zone southeast of Ypres.

The British war office in its official report today located the bombardments between the Scarpe river and Lens and from Givenchy to Nieppe Forest. These two sectors cover a front of nearly thirty miles.

To the east of Amiens the cannonade rose to the intensity of drum fire around Villers-Bretonneux and in the sectors of the Luce river and Noyon.

It was a high compliment to the American army that they have been put on the vital part of the Picardy front between the Somme and Aves river, where they are now fighting shoulder to shoulder with the French.

This—the fortieth day of the German grand offensive—found the Germans only two miles from Ypres but they are no closer to the British base at Amiens than they were a fortnight ago.

IN THE SERVICE OF OUR COUNTRY

PRIVATE WILLARD JOY

aged 24 years, who made his home with his sister, Mrs. John K. Emmett, 106 Albany avenue, enlisted in the Aviation Corps at Fort Slocum and was later transferred to Kelly's Field, Texas, and later on was transferred to Selfish Field, Michigan, and then from there went to Hempstead, Long Island, whence he sailed for somewhere in France. He was an active member of the Barmann Pipe & Drum Corps and also the newly organized Bailey Pipe, Drum and Bugle Corps. He would like to hear from his many friends from his home town. His address is 156th Aero Squadron, A. E. F., France, via New York.

Andrew J. Murphy, Jr., a member of the Naval Reserves, spent Sunday at his home here on a brief furlough.

Private Harry Kaplan of Headquarters Company, 363rd Engineers, stationed at Camp Dix, is home on a brief furlough.

Sergeant Matthew Bence has been appointed second lieutenant. He has passed the physical examination and is now waiting to be commissioned.

William G. Kearney of Saugerties has been graduated from the Officers' Training School at Camp Sherman, Ohio, and commissioned a second lieutenant in the Field Artillery.

Corporal William C. Washburn, of the National Army, who has been stationed at Camp Dix, Wrightstown, N. J., and later transferred to Camp Gordon, Atlanta, Ga., where he has been for several months, has just been transferred to Camp Upton, Yaphank, L. I. He is a Saugerties boy.

Mrs. James Howard, No. 167 Henry street, has received word from her son, James Francis Howard, of his safe arrival overseas. Private Howard left Kingston February 26 with the drafted men and he belonged to 360th Infantry, Co. B, Camp Upton, L. I.

WEST SHORE WORKERS BUY LIBERTY BONDS

The employees of the car department of the West Shore railroad at Kingston have subscribed for $5,100 in Liberty Bonds.

ABOUT THE FOLKS.

Miss Agnes R. Tucker, formerly of Port Ewen, now of Brooklyn, is visiting Mrs. Helen Johnston of No. 11 Wurts street.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred J. Walter have returned home after visiting at the home of their son, Raymond G. Walter, of Butler, Pa.

Mrs. Sarah M. Burhans and daughter, Catherine, have returned to their home in Lake Katrine, after spending the winter at Albany and New York.

Roland Niece of Port Ewen has accepted a position with the L. B. Van Wagenen Co., of this city, and entered upon his new duties Saturday.

John J. Larkin and bride have returned to their home on Spring street an extended honeymoon spent at Washington, D. C., and other points of interest in the south.

Harry Spangenberg of the U. S. Surveying Company, of the United States Engineers, has returned to his position in New York after spending the week end with his parents on Adams street.

Fire at Tongore.

Fire of undetermined origin Sunday night destroyed a barn owned by Grover Christiansa, and located about half a mile west of the Tongore post-office. A large quantity of feed, a buckboard wagon and a number of other articles fell prey to the flames. The loss is partly covered by insurance. Neighbors tried to help, but the barn burned so rapidly that nothing could be saved.

Navigation Notes.

The Odell of the Central Hudson Line is expected in the creek tonight. This is her first trip up the river this season.

The Coxackie-Newton Hook ferry will begin the season's trip this week.

"NEHOCA" CARTOON MAKES HIT IN FRANCE

Eating off Real Dishes—Big Base Hospital Visited—Churches so old They Were Built Before Judge Clearwater Was Born.

On Active Service with the American Expeditionary Force, March 27. —I have to laugh at pop's speculations as to where I am. It is so funny and just a mention as to where I really am would make everything so plain to him. You people know a lot about things over here we don't know, but there is one thing you don't know, and that is where we boys are located. I always wanted to hit this spot but never expected Uncle Sam would send me.

If this letter is mixed a bit like the real army hash, it is because I am trying to write to the tune of the Artillery Band in the next room playing "Over There" and "Good Bye Broadway Hello France" or as we now sing "Hello Broadway, Goodbye France." There is a star dance on in the "Y" tonight and I came up. I just wanted to write when the band came in and hit it up.

Aaron Cohen did not want my address to collect any bills for clothes, etc., but just wanted to write. He is a pretty good friend, you see, so he sent me two postals of the crossing and sent me a letter and a drawing of Kaiser Bill, with comments which really are good, a drawing of me and a poem which I see is dedicated to me. O. joy, it is good (in spots). As usual he draws one of the "Neoca" pictures of himself at the close of his letter and signs it "Me." I showed it to Carl and Hansen and they thought him pretty clever. The cartoon shows Wilson "telling the Kaiser where he gets off" and the Kaiser in a meek manner says, in effect, "who da think it."

I forgot how Aaron says it. I got Peter Pabrother's address and sent a letter the same day. The others I am not well acquainted with except Woerner and I'll have to wait for a more clear address for him. We now have the classiest mess in camp. We eat off white plates, having discarded our mess kits a few days ago. And I'll bet K. P. is great now washing a hundred and fifty plates, knives and forks. I suppose now we will soon move, for it is too good to be true.

It was pretty chilly again today going to town, but warmed up later on. Perhaps one reason it was cold was the fact that I am now a combination gas and ice man. I bring back a cake of ice each day, not ice such as you have been troubled with all winter, but artificial ice. I visited one of the big U. S. base hospitals one day recently and any nurse would be tickled to death to work in it. It is a fine large building located in spacious, tree studded lawns. I suppose some private estate formerly, and all about are newer buildings. I saw several Red Cross nurses. They wear a uniform, similar in color and design to those at the Sanatorium, and the sight of them reminded me of the girls at the San.

The next time I am on pass I want to go to visit some of the old churches where some of the old timers are sleeping. Some of these churches are old, some started long before Judge Clearwater even was born, and they say some of them have mummies and all that sort of things in them. There is one in particular way down near the river with a spire which is very tall and carved by means of a circular stair. I am going to climb to the top and see the surrounding country. One fellow went up a week ago and when he reached the top his knees were so weak he thought he could not walk down. He thought of jumping but took one look over the edge and decided to go back the way he came up.

I intended taking in some of the old places last Sunday, but went to the roller skating rink instead and, of course, I could not break away until it was time to get the truck back to camp. Well, I wish I were home again and everything was settled over here. I hope I will be soon. There is only one thing I am sorry about now and that is I didn't get in the thing sooner. I wouldn't miss this great experience for anything, and I guess there are many who are trying to keep out now who will be sorry later on.

It was not so pleasant last winter for couple of months, but now it is warm and like May in the states, so we are getting on O. K. If I could see more at close range I would like it better, and I hope we may get a chance soon.

We are able to get out on Sundays in the afternoon and see the sights. I have loved every minute of it, and here so much they are as familiar as dear old Ulster county, and I am able to go about towns nearly as well as if I were home in Kingston. But French I guess I'll never learn, it comes so slow.

Carl Jacob, my buddy, and I have been on pass together several times and have loved every minute of it, and here so much they are as familiar as dear old Ulster county, and I am able to go about towns nearly as well as if I were home in Kingston. But French I guess I'll never learn, it comes so slow.

There is only one pleasure (?) here I don't like, and that is washing. I guess I never was intended for laundry work. FRED.

Quo Vadis This Evening.

The wonderful picture of Quo Vadis, which was yesterday presented at the Municipal Opera house, will be repeated this evening at 8 o'clock. The proceeds will be invested in a Liberty Bond for the school.

SERG. ABE SINGER IN THE TRENCHES

SERG. ABE SINGER.

Son of Mr. and Mrs. L. Singer of 60 Broadway. He has been in France for eight months. A recent letter from him is as follows:

March 29, 1918.

Dear Folks:—

Just a few words to let you know that I am feeling fine and hope to hear the same from you all.

This is the first chance I had to write to you. I've been in the trenches and now they have sent me to a school where I expect to stay for at least two months. I received about twelve letters from you this last week but never received the package from Jack yet.

I'm writing a letter to Markson today. I met a fellow out of a New York regiment says they know Markson. We are having a bad day today, it is raining and an awful wind. Having no more to write at present I will close with love to all.

Your son,
SERGEANT ABE SINGER,
Co. E, 23rd Inf.,
France.

AMERICANS IN PICARDY BATTLE

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

With the American Army in Northern France, April 28.—(Noon)—Americans are in the first line trenches.

The Americans are holding part of the battle front in Picardy field and are fighting alongside of the French. They were sent north from their original positions when the Picardy battle developed. They are evidently located between the Somme and Aves rivers (southeast of Amiens) as the French war office recently reported a German attack against Franco-American positions in that zone after a severe bombardment.

CASUALTY LIST OF THE MARINES

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

Washington, April 29.—The death of one Marine from wounds received in action in France, the wounding of two others in action and the loss of one man from a submarine chaser, were announced in a casualty list issued this afternoon by the navy department.

The man who died from wounds was Fred Charles Schaffner, hospital apprentice, first class, whose mother is Mrs. Emma Schaffner, resides at 4224 Seventh avenue, Rock Island, Ill.

The wounded men are: Spencer Jay Lewis, Pharmacist's mate, third class, U. S. N. His mother is Mrs. Nona Lewis, 2337 South 12th street, St. Joseph, Mo.

Carl O. Kingsbury, hospital apprentice, first class, U. S. N., mother Mrs. Adelbert Kingsbury, 306 Boyles avenue, Newcastle, Pa.

Matthew D. Sullivan, machinist's mate, second class, U. S. N. R. F., was lost overboard from a submarine chaser in a heavy sea. His body was not recovered. His father lives at Brooklyn, N. Y.

ABSENT CONSCRIPT FOUND IN ARIZONA

One of the class 1 registrants who is under the jurisdiction of the local board for Division No. 1 of Ulster county failed to appear for his physical examination when notified to do so some time ago, and investigation showed that he had left Kingston without furnishing his address or any forwarding instructions with the local board as required by the selective service regulations.

The local board today received word from the military intelligence bureau that the absent registrant, who had been located at Yuma, Arizona, and he will be sent to this city for his physical examination shortly.

TURN OUT TOMORROW TO SEE THE BOYS OFF

Remember How To Identify Them in The Parade and Be Generous With Your Applause As They Go Away.

The new members of the National Army from Divisions No. 1 and 2 will entrain at the West Shore depot tomorrow morning at 8:55 o'clock for Camp Dix, N. J., and the boys should be given at least a big send-off as the demonstrations which have been made for their predecessors.

Tomorrow's detail will consist of seventeen men from Division No. 1 and sixteen from Division 2. The detail from Division No. 3 will entrain on the New York, Ontario & Western railroad at Napanoch.

Each organization taking part in tomorrow's demonstration should be in the place designated on Main street by 8:10 o'clock so that everything will be in readiness at 8:25 o'clock, when the fire alarm will strike five times, and the parade can be put in motion when the second signal of five taps is struck five minutes later.

Company M, New York Guard, headed by the Bailey Pipe & Drum Corps, will have the right of line. The fathers of the drafted men, the local exemption boards of both divisions and the drafted men will form the last division in line, and will be headed by the Colonial City Band.

People along the line of march who heretofore have been unable to identify the boys on their way to camp will have no difficulty if they will remember that the pipe and drum corps head, the procession, that the Colonial City Band heads the last division, and that the last division is composed only of the fathers of the boys, the local boards and the boys themselves. There should be no lack of cheers and applause for the boys.

WHISTLING CO. 1 STILL WHISTLES

In Soaking Rain, With Tent Gone, They Sing, "Pack Up Your Troubles" and March On.

Camp Wadsworth, Spartanburg, S. C.

Dear Sir:—Will you kindly publish the following:

Just a few lines to let the people of Kingston know that the 71st Regiment is still living and also holding its good old reputation.

We expect to leave for the other side very shortly as we have just finished all our training which is needed on the other side and we have put in a very severe training since we have been down here, drilling in all sorts of weather which we never mind.

Our regiment left for the ride range last Friday, April 19, 1918, and broke all records in the line of hiking ever pulled off in the United States.

We made the whole distance which is thirty-two miles in eight hours, our equipment consisting of two blankets, rain coat, one tent, one tent pole, 5 tent pins, a mess kit also personal stuff, altogether weighing about seventy-five pounds and also our new rifles which we just received and our bayonets and belts.

The morning we left camp it was raining but the boys didn't seem to mind it as they were all singing, "Pack Up Your Troubles in Your Old Kit Bag." We also had the band with us which kept us all in good humor all the time by their playing.

Our first camp was made about twenty-five miles this side of the range and it was still raining when we reached there and we had to dig tents right in the rain but we didn't seem to mind it as we were so used to it.

I woke up during the night and found myself sleeping in a pool of water and every thing I owned even my shoes were full of water and my chum, who is Ray Rundel, was almost buried in mud along side of me and our tent was amongst the missing, but we still sang, "Pack Up Your Troubles in Your Old Kit Bag." We broke camp early in the morning and rolled our packs, everything being soaked wet, it seemed as if they weighed a ton.

We then journeyed on to our destination, the range, and we reached there the following night, we then pitched tents and then had supper which consisted of hard tack and black coffee. After supper we crowded in our dog tents and went right to sleep dreaming of good old Kingston.

The next day we were on the range shooting and we all did very good, most of us qualifying as marksmen.

On our journey back we made the distance in eight hours, our band kept playing all the way in, keeping us in good humor all the while and putting spirit into the boys.

We still hold our old record as the hiking and whistling 1 Company of the old 71st Regiment and we still mean to keep it.

On our way in we passed divisional headquarters and we were met by Major General O'Ryan and his staff and he complimented us as being the best regiment in the 27th Division.

We certainly were glad to get back to our company street to get a good feed and also a good rest which we needed.

We'll have to close now as taps just sounded and that means all lights out. Hoping this letter will find you all in the best of health, we remain as ever

Sincerely yours,
PRIVATE RAY RUNDDEL,
PRIVATE JOHN C. SPARLING,
Co. I, 155th U. S. Inf., Camp Wadsworth,
Spartanburg, S. C.

THE JOINERS.

News of Interest to Members of Fraternal Societies.

The following lodges held regular meetings this evening:

Franklin Lodge, No. 37, K. of P., in Pythian Hall, corner of Wall and John streets.

Rondout Lodge, No. 343, F. & A. M., in Masonic Hall, corner of Strand and Broadway.

This evening the first degree will be conferred by the senior warden at Rondout Lodge, No. 343, F. & A. M.

Clinton Chapter, No. 445, O. E. S., held their second patriotic meeting of the year, Friday evening, April 26, thereby celebrating "Liberty Day." The singing of the Liberty Anthem and the other patriotic numbers by the quartet were enjoyed by all. The recitation by Master Elmyr Morris was exceptionally well rendered and brought forth hearty praise. Mr. Tinnie of Port Ewen, delighted the audience with his selections most of them of a patriotic nature. The solo by Miss Babcock, "Keep the Home Fires Burning," and "Khaki and Navy Blue" by Mrs. E. S. Morris were effectively rendered. Mayor Palmer Canfield gave a very inspiring address and an earnest plea in the interest of the third Liberty Loan. The closing number was a clever little sketch entitled, "Buy a Bond," by eight young ladies. It is a night that will be long remembered by the many friends of Clinton Chapter.

To Present "Mrs. Tubbs." "Mrs. Tubbs of Shantytown" will be presented at the Mechanics' Hall on Tuesday evening, under the auspices of the Daughters of America. This is under the direction of T. H. Richards, who so successfully conducted the same at the First Presbyterian Church recently. A pleasant evening is promised.

Klingberg Writes of Gunite. Former City Engineer W. Klingberg, now located at 59 Church street, New York City, has written an interesting article on the advantages of gunite over poured concrete for ship and barge construction which appears in the April 15 number of "Contracting" a magazine issued in New York City.

Missing From Atwood.

Address Stratton of Atwood has reported to the police department that his son, Frank, has been missing from home since April 3. The young man is 16 years old, tall and slim with dark brown hair and gray eyes and weight about 135 pounds.

FRANCE PLEAS ULSTER CO. OFFICER

Lieut. John R. DeVall Says Next to America He Would Live in France

—Wonderful Patriotism of the People.

Somewhere in France, 3-11-18.

Dear Fred:—

I just happened to get hold of this Corona, and having a few spare moments will redeem my promise to write you, say time for correspondence is somewhat limited, and because of the censorship it is rather hard to write an interesting letter, however, I'll do the best I can.

We are having a good time here and working as hard as we can. When we first landed I missed three meals and two nights sleep. We had to work all of one night handling and sorting baggage, and most of the work was done in mud two feet deep; then to make matters worse it rained and we all got soaked; but everyone took it as a joke and the next morning the sun shone very brightly, as though welcoming us to France.

The country is just like the descriptions you read of it. Most of the people wear wooden shoes (they ought to be good at clog dancing) and the houses are practically all built of stone. The towns look very old with many old stone walls about them, and the countryside is all a bright green, and very beautiful in the springtime.

The people are wonderful. Men, women and children, they are all devoted to one purpose: winning the war. It seems remarkable that a people could be so united, but then this war has touched every household in the land, and they are all sacrificing everything they possess for their country. They are very kind and considerate, very thoughtful of the feelings of others. While they are far behind us industrially and in many other ways, yet they have a polish and a sense of courtesy that we as a nation are rather lacking in. I am not knocking the U. S. The more I travel in foreign countries the more I appreciate my own, but next to my own I would rather live in France. I am making fair progress in learning the language, and no doubt by the time we kill off all the Huns I will be able to talk it like a native.

Well, my worthy Brother, remember me to all who love me, and keep me informed of all the news of interest. Tell Harry that I will write him soon. Remember a letter to us is a Godsend so don't wait until you hear from me.

Trusting this finds you in the best of health, I remain,

Fraternally yours,

JOHN R. DEVALL,
1st Lieut. 126th Inf.

MARLBOROUGH "OVER THE TOP"

It is very pleasing to hear from different parts of Ulster county that the allotment for the third Liberty Loan is already being over-subscribed.

It must be very gratifying to the boys in the trenches to know that the honor flag is flying over so many places in Ulster county.

Marlborough reports having gone "over the top," and it is hoped that Kingston can fly two flags.

Missing in Action—Privates Edward J. Doherty, Carl Holst, James N. Muldoon.

BRIEF REVIEW OF THE BATTLE NEWS

Concentrating their pressure against a ten-mile line between Meteren and Voormezele the Germans on the Flanders battle front have begun a series of assaults in an effort to drive the British and French from the last of the high ground they hold in that district and thus compel the evacuation of Ypres.

(The Line of Meteren-Voormezele is a crucial part of the battle zone lying across the Franco-Belgian frontier. Meteren is in France, about 10 miles west of Baillieu; Voormezele is in Belgium, two miles south of Ypres.)

The German thrusts in that sector followed another attempt by the Germans to break the Anglo-French front at Loos (about midway between Meteren and Voormezele). The attack broke down under the Allied fire.

(Germans are roving over the greater part of the Flanders and Picardy battle fields, indicating that in fantry fighting may break out on a grand scale in front of Amiens, northeast and southeast of Arras and in the zone southeast of Ypres.)

The British war office in its official report today located the bombardments between the Scarpe river and Lens and from Ginchy to Nijpe Forest. These two sectors cover a front of nearly thirty miles.

To the east of Amiens the cannonade rose to the intensity of drum fire around Villers-Bretonneux and in the sectors of the Luce river and Noyon.

It was a high compliment to the American army that they have been put on the vital part of the Picardy front between the Somme and Arras rivers, where they are now fighting shoulder to shoulder with the French.

This—the fortieth day of the German grand offensive—found the Germans only two miles from Ypres but they are no closer to the British base at Amiens than they were a fortnight ago.

FRANCE PLEASES ULSTER CO. OFFICER

Lieut. John R. DeVall Says Next to America he Would Live in France

—Wonderful Patriotism of the People.

Somewhere in France. 3-11-18.

Dear Fred:

I just happened to get hold of this Corona, and having a few spare moments will redeem my promise to write you, my time for correspondence is somewhat limited, and because of the censorship it is rather hard to write an interesting letter, however, I'll do the best I can.

We are having a good time here and working as hard as we can. When we first landed I missed three meals and two nights sleep. We had to work all of one night handling and sorting baggage, and most of the work was done in mud two feet deep; then to make matters worse it rained and we all got soaked; but everyone took it as a joke and the next morning the sun shone very brightly, as though welcoming us to France.

The country is just like the descriptions you read of it. Most of the people wear wooden shoes (they ought to be good at clog dancing) and the houses are practically all built of stone. The towns look very old with many old stone walls about them, and the countryside is all a bright green, and very beautiful in the springtime.

The people are wonderful. Men, women and children, they are all devoted to one purpose: winning the war. It seems remarkable that a people could be so united, but then this war has touched every household in the land, and they are all sacrificing everything they possess for their country. They are very kind and considerate, very thoughtful of the feelings of others. While they are far behind us industrially and in many other ways, yet they have a polish and a sense of courtesy that we as a nation are rather lacking in.

I am not knocking the U. S. more I travel in foreign countries the more I appreciate my own, but next to my own I would rather live in France. I am making fair progress in learning the language, and no doubt by the time we kill off all the Huns I will be able to talk like a native.

Well, my worthy Brother, remember me to all who love me, and keep me informed of all the news of interest. Tell Harry that I will write him soon. Remember a letter to us is a Godsend so don't wait until you hear from me.

Trusting this finds you in the best of health, I remain,

Fraternally yours,

JOHN.

John R. DeVall, 1st Lieut. 126th Inf.

MARLBOROUGH "OVER THE TOP"

It is very pleasing to hear from different parts of Ulster county that the allotment for the third Liberty Loan is already being over-subscribed.

It must be very gratifying to the boys in the trenches to know that the home flag is flying over so many places in Ulster county.

Marlborough reports having gone "over the top" and it is hoped that Kingston can do as well.

IN THE SERVICE OF OUR COUNTRY

aged 24 years, who made his home with his sister, Mrs. John K. Emmett, 704 Albany avenue, enlisted in the Aviation Corps at Fort Slocum and was later transferred to Kelly's Field, Texas, and later on was transferred to Selfish Field, Michigan, and then from there went to Hempstead, Long Island, France. He was an active member of the Hermann Fife & Drum Corps and also the newly organized Bailey Fife, Drum and Bugle Corps. He would like to hear from his many friends from his home town. His address is 156th Aero Squadron, A. E. F., France, via New York.

Andrew J. Murphy, Jr., a member of the Naval Reserves, spent Sunday at his home here on a brief furlough.

Private Harry Kaplan of Headquarters Company, 360th Engineers, stationed at Camp Dix, is home on a brief furlough.

Sergeant Matthew Bence has been appointed second lieutenant. He has passed the physical examination and is now waiting to be commissioned.

William G. Kearney of Saugerties has been graduated from the Officers' Training School at Camp Sherman, Ohio, and commissioned a second lieutenant in the Field Artillery.

Corporal William C. Washburn, of the National Army, who has been stationed at Camp Dix, Wrightstown, N. J., and later transferred to Camp Gordon, Atlanta, Ga., where he has been for several months, has just been transferred to Camp Upton, Yaphank, L. I. He is a Saugerties boy.

Mrs. James Howard, No. 167 Henry street, has received word from her son, James Francis Howard, of his safe arrival overseas. Private Howard left Kingston February 26 with the drafted men and he belonged to 360th Infantry, Co. B, Camp Upton, L. I.

The next time I am on pass into town I am going to visit some of the old churches where some of the old timers are sleeping. Some of these churches are old, some started long before Judge Clearwater even was born, and they say some of them have mummies and all that sort of things in them. There is one in particular way down near the river which is very tall and can be mounted by means of a circular stair. I am going to climb to the top and see the surrounding country. One fellow went up a week ago and when he reached the top his knees were so weak he thought he could not walk down. He thought of jumping but took one look over the edge and decided to go back the way he came up.

I intended taking in some of the old places last Sunday, but went to the roller skating rink instead and, of course, I could not break away until it was time to get the truck back to camp.

Well, I wish I were home again and everything was settled over here. I hope it will be soon. There is only one thing I am sorry about now and that is I didn't get in the thing sooner. I would like to have great experience for anything, and I guess there are many who are trying to keep out now who will be sorry later on.

It was not so pleasant last winter for a couple of months, but now it is warm and like May in the states, so we are getting on O. K. If I could see more at close range I would like it better, and I hope we may get a chance soon.

We are able to get out on Sundays in the afternoon and see the sights. I have traveled over the roads about here so much they are as familiar as dear old Ulster county, and I am able to go about towns nearly as well as if I were home in Kingston. But French I guess I'll never learn, it comes so slow.

Carl Jacob, my buddy, and I have been on pass together several times and he even managed to make out in spite of our limited knowledge of French. He comes from Roselle, N. J.

There is only one pleasure here I don't like, and that is washing. I guess I never was intended for laundry work.

QUO VADIS THIS EVENING.

The wonderful picture of Quo Vadis, which was yesterday presented at the Immaculate Conception parish, will be repeated this evening at 8 o'clock. The proceeds will be invested in a Liberty Bond for the school.

Fire at Tongore.

Fire of undetermined origin Sunday night destroyed a barn owned by Grover Christiana, and located about half a mile west of the Tongore post office. A large quantity of feed, a buckboard wagon and a number of other articles fell prey to the flames. The loss is partly covered by insurance. Neighbors tried to help, but the barn burned so rapidly that nothing could be saved.

"NEHOCA" CARTOON MAKES HIT IN FRANCE

Eating off Real Dish—Big Base Hospital Visited—Churches so old They Were Built Before Judge Clearwater was Born.

On Active Service with the American Expeditionary Force, March 27.

I have to laugh at pop's speculations as to where I am. It is so funny and just a mention as to where I really am would make everything so plain to him. You people know a lot about things over here we don't know, but there is one thing you don't know, and that is where we boys are located. I always wanted to hit this spot but never expected Uncle Sam would send me.

If this letter is mailed a bit like the real army hash, it is because I am trying to write to the tune of the Artillery Band in the next room playing "Over There" and "Good Bye Broadway Hello France" or as we now sing "Hello Broadway, Goodbye France." There is a star cadence on the "Y" tonight and I came up in the next room.

When the band came in and hit it up Aaron Cohen did not want my address to collect my bills for clothes, etc., but just wanted to write. He is a pretty good friend, you see, so he sent me two postals of the crossing accident and informed me he was sending cakes and cigarettes.

Besides the letters and photos, Mr. Cohen sent some of his verses, a drawing of Kaiser Bill, with comments which really are good, a drawing of me and a poem which I see is dedicated to me. O. Joy, it is good (in spots). As usual he draws one of the "X" pictures of himself at the close of his letter and signs it "Mc." I showed it to Carl and I sent and they thought him pretty clever. The cartoon shows Wilson "telling the Kaiser where he gets off" and the Kaiser in a meek manner says in effect, "who da think it." I forget how Aaron says it.

I got Percy Fairbrother's address and sent a letter the same day. The others I am not well acquainted with except Woerner and I'll have to wait for a more clear address for him.

We now have the classiest mess in camp. We eat off white plates, having discarded our mess kits a few days ago. And I'll bet K. P. is great now, washing a hundred and fifty plates, knives and forks. I suppose now we will soon move, for it is too good to be true.

It was pretty chilly again today going to town, but warmed up later on. Perhaps one reason it was cold was the fact that I am now a combination gas and ice-man. I bring back a cube of ice each day, not for such as you have been troubled with all winter, but artificial ice.

I visited one of the big U. S. base hospitals one day recently and any nurse would be tickled to death to work in it. It is a fine large building located in spacious, tree studded lawns, I suppose some private estate formerly, and all about are newer buildings. I saw several Red Cross nurses. They wear a uniform, similar in color and design to those at the Sanitarium, and the sight of them reminded me of the girls at the San.

Americans are in the first line trenches.

The Americans are holding part of the battle front in Picardy field and are fighting alongside of the French.

They were sent north from their original positions when the Picardy battle developed. They are evidently located between the Somme and Arras rivers (southeast of Amiens) as the French war office recently reported a German attack against Franco-American positions in that zone after a severe bombardment.

SERGT. ABE SINGER IN THE TRENCHES

SERGT. ABE SINGER.

Son of Mr. and Mrs. L. Singer of 60 Broadway. He has been in France for eight months. A recent letter from him is as follows.

March 29, 1918.

Dear Folks:—

Just a few words to let you know that I am feeling fine and hope to hear the same from you all.

This is the first chance I had to write to you. I've been in the trenches and now they have sent me to a school where I expect to stay for at least two months. I received about twelve letters from you this last week but never received the package from Jack yet.

I'm writing a letter to Markson today. I met a fellow out of a New York regiment says that he knows Markson. We are having a bad day today. It is raining and an awful wind. Having no more to write at present I will close with love to all.

Your son,
SERGEANT ABE SINGER,
Co. E, 23rd Inf.,

TURN OUT TOMORROW TO SEE THE BOYS OFF

Remember How To Identify Them in The Parade and Be Generous With Your Applause As They Go Away.

The new members of the National Army from Divisions No. 1 and 2 will entrain at the West Shore depot tomorrow morning at 8:55 o'clock for Camp Dix, N. J., and the boys should be given at least a big send-off as the demonstrations which have been made for their predecessors.

Tomorrow's detail will consist of seventeen men from Division No. 1 and sixteen from Division 2. The detail from Division No. 3 will entrain on the New York, Ontario & Western railroad at Nanamoch.

Each organization taking part in tomorrow's demonstration should be in the place designated on Main street by 8:10 o'clock so that everything will be in readiness at 8:25 o'clock, when the fire alarm will strike five times, and the parade can be put in motion when the second signal of five taps is struck five minutes later.

Company M, New York Guard, headed by the Bailey Fife & Drum Corps, will have the right of line. The fathers of the drafted men, the joint exemption boards of both divisions and the drafted men will form the last division in line, and will be headed by the Colonial City Band.

People along the line of march who heretofore have been unable to identify the boys on their way to camp will have no difficulty if they will remember that the file and drum corps head, the procession, that the Colonial City Band heads the last division, and that the last division is composed only of the fathers of the boys, the local boards and the boys themselves. There should be no lack of cheers and applause for the boys.

EUGENE CAREY WRITES TO MAYOR

Says That the Y. M. C. A. and the K. of C. Are Doing Invaluable Work in France—All of the Men "Over There" Are Gaining Weight.

Mayor Canfield has received the following letter from Eugene B. Carey of Kingston, who is doing his bit in France:

General Headquarters
American Expeditionary Forces
France,
April 2nd, 1918.

Dear Mayor:
Your letter of March 3rd greeted me this morning and I was very pleased to hear from you. Nothing is more precious to the American soldier in France than a letter from home. You would appreciate this statement more could you see the fellows when mail from the states arrives. It takes just one man to start the rumor "mail in" and in short duration everyone at headquarters knows it. Then a steady influx to the mail division.

I know where Grant and your brother are located and nothing would please me more than to meet them on foreign soil but distance intervenes. I have although, been with other Kingston fellows and while with them could hardly realize the distance I was from home. A few days ago I became acquainted with a Mr. Atkins from Oswego, N. Y., who is also working at this location. He knew the up-town section of our city as though one of Kingston's residents, having summered at Pine Hill for many years, doing trading and having friends in Kingston. He came over on the same liner with Grant, Ennist and Hoffman and knows all three.

Papers from home tell me that the last contingent of the first quota are now in training. I now feel that my action was justified for had I not entered the service and made this pilgrimage to the land of heroes I would still be enjoying civil life at home. Nevertheless, I am pleased to be in the service doing my bit in the theater of operations where the greatest battle of the world will soon be fought.

I would have missed the best of life had I not been selected to "come over," especially feeling so while on drill or at the Y. M. C. A. where hundreds of soldiers are gathered.

Though the comforts and conveniences of home are lacking in military life, still if one acclimates himself to contentment everything is O. K. We have plenty to eat and I have yet to meet a man who has lost weight. We arise early and lights go out at nine thirty. We are so used to going about in the dark that we would not feel strange were all the street lights out when we return.

I read of Mr. Brinnier's unfortunate trip on the ocean and rejoice that he is still with us. Many a day of my trip on the water was stormy with a heavy rolling sea and often I said, "Good bye world for our ship will never right itself." Thus I know what minimum chances a human being has on a sinking ship in mid ocean.

We received posters for the Third Liberty Loan today. Had I only encountered my recent experiences here endeavoring to tell the people of Kingston why they should buy Second Liberty Loan Bonds, I would have been at the height of my position.

The Y. M. C. A. and K. of C. are doing invaluable work in these parts and the American soldiers would be lost without them. To them must be given a high percentage of credit for the splendid moral and morale status of "Our Boys." Day and night their doors are open to all. There we spend our evenings being entertained by the regimental band, local talent or professional entertainers or public speakers. I have listened to Elsie Julia, E. H. Sothern, the Shakespearean actor, many college professors, statesmen and federal representatives of high degree. Robert Warwick, the renowned movie actor, is with us at headquarters.

I have seen refugees of Belgium, soldiers of every nation, even German prisoners, so you can judge what a cosmopolitan population there is now in France.

I have seen works of Caesar, abodes of Joan of Arc, the greatest battle fields of past French wars, castles of French kings and other buildings of the 12th and 13th centuries. They are wonderful, just as pictured in history books, even though they did not seem possible when I studied about them.

We have more wet weather "Over here" than dry. For two weeks steady I wore rubbers every day. Easter Sunday was rainy all day long, so we could not parade in our new Easter suits. The trees and flowers are budding, the grass is green, which are sure signs summer is nigh. Very seldom does one hear the warble of a bird and with oncoming spring I miss the call of the robin. I could make this letter far more interesting were it not for the handicap which you well understand.

Would be pleased to hear from you at any time and ask you to extend my best regards to Mr. Brinnier and my other friends in Kingston.

Sincerely,
EUGENE B. CAREY.

Italians Expert Candle Makers.

The making of candles is not ordinarily considered a fine art, but the Italians have made it such. The distinctive Italian native taper is made by hand. The masticale are pure beeswax, which is kneaded and tempered and mixed with a secret ingredient to retard combustion and which has special Egyptian cotton for wicks. The cotton, too, is treated with chemicals to keep it from feeding too fast. Small candles are molded. Large ones are made by rolling up sheets of wax.

You know, of course, that the Maxwell Motor Car is the long distance champion of the world.

You have read that a "stock" Maxwell 5-passenger car ran for 44 days and nights without stopping the motor.

And that, in the 44 days non-stop test, the Maxwell covered 22,022 miles, at an average speed of 25 miles per hour.

But have you, up to now, realized the full significance of that performance?

Do you know that no other motor car in the world has ever equalled or even approached that performance?

In a word, did you take this test seriously when you heard of it?

Or did you set it down as a "selling stunt" to give the publicity man something to talk about?

It's worth your while to read and to study the conditions under which that test was made.

You know that the American Automobile Association (familiarly known as the "A.A.A.") is the official arbiter of every automobile test and contest.

But perhaps you didn't know that when a maker places his product under A.A.A. supervision he must do absolutely as told and abide by the decisions of the Board. That's why there are so few A.A.A. Official Records!

This 22,000-mile Maxwell non-stop test was official from start to finish.

Therein lies its value to you.

It proves absolutely the quality of the car—of the very Maxwell you buy.

For verily this was a "stock" Maxwell. Listen—

First: the inspectors disassembled the motor to see that no special pistons, valves, bearing-metal or other parts had been used.

Every other unit was as critically inspected. Then the car was re-assembled under their own supervision.

As we had much at stake and the test was made in winter (November 23 to January 5) we asked permission to take certain little precautions against accidental stoppage.

Sounds reasonable, doesn't it?

But they refused permission to do any such thing.

For example:—They would not permit a rubber cover over the magneto—it wasn't "stock."

They refused to let us tape the ignition wire terminals—they are not taped on the Maxwells we sell—so of course it wasn't "stock."

Neither would they let us use a spiral coiled pipe in place of the usual straight one from tank to carburetor to guard against a breakage from the constant, unremitting vibration—it isn't "stock."

Nor to use a special high priced foreign make of spark plug—the run was made on the same spark plugs with which all Maxwells are equipped.

So rigid were the rules, we were unable to carry a spare tire on the rear—it wasn't "stock." A telegram to headquarters in New York finally brought a special permit to carry a spare tire.

"It isn't stock!" "It isn't stock!"

That was the laconic reply of those A.A.A. inspectors to every last suggestion that called for anything but the precise condition of the standard, stock model Maxwell that any customer can buy from any one of 3000 dealers anywhere.

We are glad now—mighty glad—that the rules were so strict and so rigidly enforced.

Any other car that ever attempts to equal that record must do it under official supervision—and comply with the same terms.

And it will have to go some.

For Maxwell set the standard when it performed this wonderful feat.

Maxwell complied with those rules—and made good.

Every drop of gasoline and oil and water was measured out and poured in by the inspectors themselves. They would not even let our man pour it in!

Every four hours the car had to report at the official station for checking.

And it had to be there on the minute.

And every minute there was an inspector beside the driver on the front seat—two more men in the rear. One got out only to let another in—day and night for 44 days and nights!

There was one technical stop.

It is interesting to know the circumstances.

Dead of night—a driving storm—a cloudburst—suddenly another car appeared in the road ahead.

In his effort to avoid a collision the Maxwell driver stalled his motor.

At least the observers thought it stopped and so reported.

The car did not stop, however, so its momentum again started the motor (if it had indeed stalled) when the clutch was let in.

The contest board exonerated our driver on grounds that his action was necessary to save life.

That shows you how rigid were the rules—how conscientiously applied by the observers.

You who have owned and driven motor cars—you who know how small a thing may clog a carburetor or a feed pipe; "short" a spark or stall a motor—will realize what a wonderfully well made car this must be to go through that test under those conditions—44 days—22,022 miles without stopping.

The exact amount of gasoline, of oil, of water used; the tire mileage, tire troubles, tire changes; the distance and the routes are matters of official record, attested under oath and guaranteed by the A. A. A.

(By the way, the average was nearly 10,000 miles per tire.)

Any Maxwell owner—or anyone interested—may see those records.

And—here's the most wonderful part—though no attempt was or could be made for economy; the Maxwell averaged 22 miles per gallon of gasoline.

Some other car may, some time, equal some one of those performances. But to equal them all in the same test—that car must be a Maxwell.

LOCAL CAMPAIGNS AND WAR.

Debate in the Senate on the Overman bill which seeks to give authority to the President to consolidate Governmental agencies and departments has become caustic. Criticism of the President and his methods is about as severe in Washington as it has been at any time on any subject during the past five years. Much of the criticism by Senators is along the same lines as that which is heard wherever men gather for free discussion; Senators express opinions which many times have been uttered throughout Ulster county, but in some cases their language is more severe.

Criticism by Senators has been directed principally at a subject to which attention has been called repeatedly by The Freeman—the appointment of incompetents to official positions requiring men of marked ability and intelligence. One could almost imagine that Senator Sherman of Illinois was offering an explanation rather than a criticism of the President's appointment of William J. Bryan as Secretary of State, were it not for the general trend of his talk, but the explanation seems feasible only in a Gilbert and Sullivan comic opera. It is nothing less than that the President, having once expressed curiosity as to whether some dignified way might not be discovered of knocking Mr. Bryan into a cocked hat, had solved his own conundrum by appointing him as Secretary of State, where grape juice and an incurable propensity to pacifism accomplished their fendish designs. The premise may be wrong but the conclusion is correct.

Aside from Bryan and his cheap buffoonery, the criticism of many official appointments at Washington has been only too well directed to suit Americans who realize fully the deep responsibility accompanying our entrance in the war. For far too long a time after that event the paths of official duty in Washington were too strongly marked by pacifist tendencies to enable efficient wartime service to be rendered. Even Senator Overman, sponsor for the bill under discussion, in urging Senators to vote for his measure, said Congress had passed one law and had to pass another to make it operative, which could be done away with by "passing a bill that will let the President organize things the way he wants, so he won't have to ask any more legislation from us." Senator Fall, favoring the bill, expressed the hope "that the President will turn out the inefficient men he has appointed and put competent men in their jobs."

There is no lack of competent men in America who realize the necessity for efficiency in office and are willing to serve the Government even at great personal sacrifice; many of them are now doing it. Mere desire to sacrifice and serve do not, however, indicate efficiency. Incompetents in office are due either to lack of judgment on the part of the President or in those recommending men for appointment, for the President necessarily cannot know personally every appointee, or to a desire to play politics either on the part of the President or his advisers. It is not unnatural for anyone to try to help a friend, but the man who tries to foist an incompetent upon the Government when we are at war is a traitor just as much as the man who plants a bomb in a munitions plant on whose output the army or navy is dependent.

The conduct of the war will be invoked to some extent in every local political contest in America no matter how remote the connection or how absurd the attempt to join the issues at stake locally and in the nation, and there will be unthinking attempts to check criticism just as surely as the critic shows his head. Likewise, criticism will be offered freely where it is undeserved and uncalled for. The keynote of wise criticism was struck by Charles E. Hughes in his address before the American Newspaper Publishers' Association Thursday night when he said: "Furnishing material for criticism is by no means the same thing as giving aid and comfort to the enemy. Let the truth be known. The anxiety should be not to avoid disclosure but rather to prevent error. Rarely will the enemy be the gainer from our knowledge of the facts. He will thrive on our apprehensions and our misconceptions. Publish the facts and disarm the critics. Or publish the facts and make amends, if there are amends to be made."

Before very long Ulster county will find itself taking active part in political campaigns of different kinds, and the war will figure more or less largely in political discussions. It would be well in such discussions to bear in mind another statement made by Mr. Hughes. It is this: "The world will never be made safe for democracy, in the last analysis, by anything short of a dominant sense of fairness and justice. A contemptible purveyor of slander, of malicious abuse of officers, of half-truths calculated to deceive, of demagogical appeal in order to win influence, influence and political power by preying upon ignorance and natural aspirations—that is the lurking enemy of our institutions which it is harder to defeat than even a Prussian autocrat. The extent of the impotency of this lurking enemy is the measure of our ultimate victory."

By all means, let us get rid of campaign lies and bars and determine issues, big or little, on facts. Self-respect will be preserved, and we shall be better for it in nation, state and community.

DR. DOWNER LOSES HIS HOUSE BY FIRE

Sunday Morning Blaze Was Fought

By Congregation Which Pastor Dismissed When Alarm Was Given—Small Insurance on Property.

The large, handsome residence of Dr. M. B. Downer, at Woodstock, was entirely destroyed by fire Sunday morning. Most of the contents also were burned but the congregation of the Woodstock Methodist Church, which is situated across the street from the Downer place, together with neighbors succeeded in saving Dr. Downer's surgical instruments, large medical library and some of the first floor furnishings.

Mrs. Downer and the children were alone in the house when a young woman attending the patriotic service at the Methodist Church, who was leaving the church before the conclusion of the service, rushed in the house and informed Mrs. Downer that the house was afire. Somewhat incredulously, Mrs. Downer stepped to the lawn and looked upward. To her horror she saw flames at that instant, bursting through the roof.

The fire was announced to the congregation of the Methodist Church by the sexton and the Rev. Mr. Libby, the pastor, promptly announced that the services were at an end. The entire congregation assisted in fighting the fire and in carrying out furniture, books and medical books, and whatever was saved from the house was due to their efforts.

The origin of the fire is not known, but as it was burning fiercely in the second and third floors, it is presumed to have been caused by a defective chimney flue. The destruction of the house and its contents is practically a total loss to Dr. Downer who carried only a small amount of insurance.

Neighbors are caring for Dr. and Mrs. Downer and their children. Dr. Downer will continue in practice and his present telephone is Woodstock 14.

The Downer residence was one of the largest and handsomest in Woodstock. It was of frame construction, three stories and basement, and the loss to Dr. Downer is a severe one.

FORT EWEN.

Port Ewen, April 29.—Port Ewen Lodge, No. 656, I. O. O. F., will meet this evening at 8 o'clock in their rooms in Pythian Hall.

A meeting of the official board of the Methodist Church will be held on Wednesday evening, May 1, at 7:30 o'clock at the parsonage.

The Boy Scouts of Kingston are now beginning their drive in the interest of the third Liberty loan as after the second Liberty loan do not start their work until the other workers have finished. The Scouts are expected to gather in what the rest have left, thus gleaming after the reapers. After the second Liberty loan the Boy Scouts brought in over $2,000, this time they are striving to make it $100,000. We have one member of this organization in our village who will call on all that is possible to secure bonds. You have responded freely to the previous calls, be ready to help the "boys" in this drive when the Scout calls on you, thus encouraging true patriotism in the boys. Help them to go "over the top."

The Woman's Foreign Missionary Society of the Methodist Church will meet Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. John Lynn on Hamilton street at 3 o'clock.

Miss Cynthia Lowe of Esopus is visiting Mrs. Etta Lowe on Schryver street.

The regular monthly meeting of the Ladies' Aid Society of the Methodist Church will be held Thursday afternoon, May 2, at 3 o'clock in the chapel.

Officer Found a Crank.

Sunday morning Officer Welch found a crank on East Chester street and accompanied the crank to headquarters at the city hall. In this case the crank is an auto crank and the owner may have it by calling at police headquarters.

KINGSTON SCOUTS AND LIBERTY BALL

There can be no question but that the Kingston Boy Scouts covered themselves with glory in connection with their participation in bringing the Liberty Ball from Saugerties to Kingston. Knowing the time that the great red, white and blue ball was expected to reach Saugerties, Marshal D. B. Atkins had expressed the wish that the ball be at the city limits at ten minutes of three o'clock. In order that the parade might be ready to move by 3 o'clock, sharp, so that was the objective for the boys. The Scout officers and the Scout executive, the ball at the city limits at 2:50 o'clock.

The Rev. J. I. Blair Larned, Scout Master of Troop 5, was at headquarters in the morning with his auto, which became the official car for the Scout organization for the day. Thanks to Mr. Heermans, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, four other cars were secured in order to relay the troops to that spot where they should receive the ball from the hands of the Saugerties Scouts. The plan was to send the cars out fifteen minutes apart, to give the boys a lift and later to pick them up—if necessary—and help them along, to the Glenelg Hill, which was supposed to be the meeting place. When the official car reached this designated spot and found no ball, they proceeded on to Saugerties, where the mammoth and much worn ball was found surrounded by a number of Scouts, but evidently an object of little interest to the Saugerties people, as no preparations had been made for parade or any special welcome to the traveller. At 12:15 the first carload of Scouts arrived, all the way from Saugerties village, being brought in by Rodney B. Osterhout. Soon they were followed by the second delegation supposedly four miles toward Kingston, arrived in the car of Jacob A. Tremper. Even the third carload brought by Mr. Oppenheimer reached Saugerties, all of which complicated the situation of getting Boy Scouts and Ball entirely to the Kingston city limits on time, for no move had been made in Saugerties to go beyond the village with the ball.

Finally, accompanied by the faithful Saugerties Scouts, and headed by their excellent Scout Drum Corps, the Scouts were all assembled just the other side of Glasco, with the ball ready for its final drive to Kingston. Reaching Glasco, another complication of a highly patriotic nature was encountered. The Glasco Band, in uniform awaited the Ball and the people of Glasco awaited the band plus the Ball and the Scouts, counting on viewing a real parade. The time was too short for more than a drive through a section of the main street, and then on the Scout escort came.

It was a fact, that thanks to the assistance of the men with cars, which included Scout Council president E. H. Bogart, the Ball was run all the way from Schoonmaker's to Kingston, and it was a dead tired but happy group of Scouts, officers and executive that arrived with the precious Ball at the city limits exactly as Marshal Atkins's watch pointed to ten minutes of three o'clock.

There were several thrilling incidents connected with the trip in, for curious or ignorant or perverse autoists made it hard enough for the boys with their unwieldy and large-sized burden, going at a good rate of speed. Several hair breadth escapes were recorded, but these incidents still further tried the mettle of the Scouts to make their objective.

When they were close to the city limits, a very considerable length of guard ropes were added to the rope on the Ball, and every Boy Scout in the city, as well as the loyal and energetic Girl Scouts with their officers, had the privilege of helping pull the ball into town. It was estimated, that with the Saugerties Scouts, there were fully 100 Scouts holding onto the rope.

It was a feat to be proud of, to have covered the distance in the time allowed so precisely, so little did the Scouts care that they were no end of tired, hot and dusty, for wasn't it all to help in the third Liberty loan sale? And that is a subject just now close to the heart of Boy Scouts all over the country.

Met at the city limits by Company M and the other participants in the parade, the Scouts continued to roll the ball into the city and down to the ferry slip. There they managed to get through the big crowd and rolled the Liberty Ball onto the tug which was to take it to Rhinebeck. Incidentally that same tug also took some fifty Scouts across the river, as well. The tug steamed away to the music of "The Star Spangled Banner," played by the Colonial Band, and amidst the cheers of the crowd. As their final act in this historic and patriotic performance, the Scouts delivered the Ball to the Scouts of Rhinebeck, helping them to roll it up the hill, and then returned home, dead tired, but proud and happy.

JUDGE CLEARWATER CHOSEN PRESIDENT

At a meeting of the Niagara Reservation Commission held at the reservation headquarters at Niagara Falls on Friday of last week, Judge Clearwater was unanimously elected president of the commission. This commission is charged by law with the custody, control and management of the American Falls and of the state park at Niagara. It is composed of five commissioners, who serve simply from a willingness to be of public service, and without compensation. They are appointed by the governor and hold office for five years. Judge Clearwater was appointed by Governor Whitman in 1916, and from the time of his appointment has manifested a deep interest in the work of the commission. He is said to have the largest collection of aquatints, medals and books relative to Niagara which exists.

American Flag to be Cared For.
Owing to the fact that the handsome American flag known as the "Dorothy Freeman flag," which has floated from its tall flag staff on Academy-green all winter has not been properly raised and lowered, but has weathered all of last winter's storms, it has been found necessary to put a new flag in its place. This is being done by the city, and as soon as it is in place it will become the duty of the Troop 6 Boy Scouts (Albany Avenue Baptist Church) Boy Scouts of the city to see to it that it is raised daily at sunrise and lowered at sunset. Furthermore it is rumored that the Scouts will do some police duty in helping to keep the Academy Green in proper order.

SOLDIER DOES NOT LIKE THE "NEEDLE"

Lamar Crawford of 66 South Manor avenue has received the following letter:

Dear Mr. Crawford:
I wish to thank you right heartily for the comfort kit. It is just the thing a soldier needs to make camp life easier and cleaner.

I have just been enjoying the needle. The inoculation is to prevent typhoid, paratyphoid and smallpox. Some more of the needle will come soon; however, I would not care of some more did not come.

There was a big parade here today for the entertainment of Governor Whitman and others. Our company is green yet, so we were not in the parade.

THE POLITICAL CALENDAR FOR 1918

By Telegraph to The Freeman

Albany, April 29.—With the fall primaries set for September 3, the enrollment of women for May 25 and the registration days for October 7, 8, 9, 10, 11 and 12 in New York city; October 11, 12, 18 and 19 for other places of 5,000 population or more and for October 12 and 13 in the rural sections, the political calendar for 1918 has just been issued from the office of Secretary of State Francis M. Hugo. Preliminary campaign activities will really get under way in places of 5,000 or more on May 25 with an enrollment of women from 8 a. m. to 10 p. m. Certificate enrollment of women in places of less than 5,000 population will take place from May 16 to June 15.

The calendar for the year is as follows:

May 16 to June 15—Certificate enrollment of women in places of less than 5,000 population.

May 25—Personal enrollment of women in places of 5,000 or more.

July 2—First day for signing petitions.

July 30 to August 6—Dates for filing designating petitions.

August 16—Last day to decline designations.

August 20—Last day to fill vacancy after declination.

August 22—Certification by secretary of state to the custodian of primary records of designations filed.

September 3—Fall primaries: New York city, 1 p. m. to 9 p. m. Outside of New York city, 7 a. m. to 8 p. m.

September 9—Last day on which custodian of primary records can certify results.

August 27 to September 9—Dates for filing town nominations.

September 3 to September 12—Dates for filing independent nominations.

September 14—Last day for declining town or independent nominations.

September 17—Last day for filing vacancies of such.

October 7, 8, 9, 10 and 11—Personal registration New York city, 5 p. m. to 10:30 p. m. and October 12 from 7 a. m. to 10:30 p. m.

October 11, 12, 18 and 19—Personal registration in cities and villages of 5,000 or more, except New York city, 7 a. m. to 10 p. m.

October 12 and 13—Non-personal registration outside of cities and villages of 5,000 or more, 7 a. m. to 10 p. m.

November 5—General election day.

It will be noticed that primary day occurs two weeks earlier than usual. While this will lengthen the fall campaign it will, however, give more time for preparing and handling the soldier vote both in the United States and possibly abroad, the latter still being under advisement. A simplified ballot for the use of men in the service has been devised.

Instead of 6,000 signers to nominate state officers by independent parties, it now requires 12,000 signers with at least 50 from each county in the state. Fulton and Hamilton counties being reckoned as one. Town nominations, instead of being filed twenty days before election as has been the case, must now be filed not earlier than the tenth Tuesday and not later than six days after the ninth Tuesday. Independent nominations must now be filed not earlier than the ninth Tuesday and not later than two days after the eighth Tuesday preceding general election day.

BLUE MOUNTAIN.

Blue Mountain, April 29.—Sunday school at the usual hour. C. E. meeting Sunday evening at 8 o'clock. Fordyce Hommel is the appointed leader. Topic: "Christian Duty and Privilege Conduct in the Home and School." Eph. 6:1-9; Mark 5:10. Consecration meeting.

The people of Blue Mountain wish to thank Mr. Felter for the improvements to the roads and bridges.

VICTORY MENUS.

These menus, planned to conserve time, labor and money, to save the foods that are scarce and use those of which there is an abundance, are Victory Menus, in more senses than one. They are prepared by the Department of Home Economics of the State College of Agriculture and endorsed by the New York State Food Commission.

Tuesday.

Breakfast—Rhubarb sauce; pinhead oatmeal cooked in milk; *corn muffins; coffee.

Lunch or Supper—Browned hash with green peppers; salad of lettuce and green beans; *toasted muffins; *gingered apples with cream.

Dinner—Green pea loaf with tomato sauce; scalloped potatoes; custard souffle with fruit juice.

Milk for the children to drink at each meal.

(*May be omitted and still leave a balanced meal.)

To give variety to the breakfast meal, try cooking cereals in all or one-half milk. It may be served with top milk or cream in the usual way and is delicious.

Corn Muffins.

One and one-half cups cornmeal; ½ teaspoon soda; 1 teaspoon baking powder; 1 teaspoon salt; 1 egg; beaten; 1 cup sour milk; 1 tablespoon sirup; 2 tablespoons melted fat; Mix the dry ingredients and add them to the milk and beaten egg. Add the fat last. Bake the muffins in greased tins in a moderate oven for 25 minutes.

Gingered Apples.

Six medium-sized apples; ¼ cup honey; ½ cup water; 1 tablespoon chopped ginger root, candied. Wash and core the apples, leaving them whole, and arrange in a baking dish. Mix the honey, hot water and ginger root together, and pour around the apples. Cover and bake slowly until the apples are tender.

Green Pea Loaf.

One and one-half cups cooked dried peas; 1½ cups bread crumbs; 1½ cups milk; 1 slightly beaten egg; 1 slice onion, chopped; salt and pepper.

Scald the milk, add the onion, bread crumbs, peas and the egg. Season to taste. Bake in a buttered baking dish in a moderate oven until firm—about 20 minutes. Beans, mashed carrots, fish or corn may be used in place of peas.

Recipes for any of the dishes in these menus which cannot be found in cook books, may be had by writing to the Department of Home Economics, State College of Agriculture, Ithaca, N. Y.

Farewell Supper.

A supper was tendered at the cafe of S. Brown, Abiel street, on Friday evening to John Ostrander, who leaves for camp tomorrow morning.

The supper was given by the following employees of Jacob Rice & Sons and friends: Arthur Britcliffe, Christian Bauer, Ronald Brown, Charles Bush, S. Brown, F. Dishler, Casper Michaels, Frank Quigley, Henry Ruchle, Wm. Erhart, Frank Grant, Ed. Rylea, Richard Smith, Alvin Boice, Ed. Curr, Lawrence Hicks, Archie Byrnes, Martin Peterson, Geo. Kirchner, Frank Glennon, Thos. Glennon, Jacob Kiets, Patrick McGeeeney, Ed. Ostrander, Frank Haber, Henry Radenburgh, Joy S. Rosa, Maurice Rice, John Wolf, John Harder, Albert Wolf, Charles Burger, John McCutcheon, John Albright, Benj. Proer, George Decker, Charles Nelson, Michael Bauer, Fred Keener, Alex. Ostrander, Charles Meyers, H. Swint, Joseph Tesilo, R. Hurley, Joseph Smith, Charles Brewer, John Hogan, Joseph Coughlin, Ray Peterson, H. Mattice, J. Harney and Floyd Hicks. After enjoying the bountiful supper provided by Host Brown, patriotic addresses were made by Alderman S. Brown and John Albright, the latter also singing "The Star Spangled Banner." J. S. Rosa describing the meaning and colors of the Stars and Stripes and Joseph Byrnes entertained with comical songs. After all bidding Brother Ostrander "Au Revoir," but not goodbye, the evening was closed by all singing "He's a Jolly Good Fellow," and telling him to be sure and get the "Kaiser."

"Officer 666" a Grand Success.

The largest crowd ever assembled in East Kingston hall was present Saturday evening when a fine rendition of Augustin MacHugh's splendid metropolitan melodrama, "Officer 666," was given by St. Colman's Dramatic Club, under the direction of Father Francis P. J. Cummings.

Michael Fay, Jr., as Travers Gladwin, a millionaire collection of valuable paintings, and John F. Hurson, as Alf Wilson, a picture expert and artist, were well appreciated in the interpretation of their respective roles. Joseph Whitaker, as a Japanese servant, was also very well applauded. The other members of the cast, Miss Ella V. Redden, Miss Kathryn C. Elgo, Miss Alice Redden, John Acker, Vincent Redden, John F. McNally, Thomas Leonard, James Volkner, Fred Ballard, Walter Morin and Martin Carr, Jr., did remarkably well in their parts. Between the second and third acts Miss Ella Redden sang "That's a Baby's Prayer at Twilight" and received loud acclamation. Good dance music was supplied by Prof. Muller. "Officer 666" will be repeated this evening and music will be furnished by Paien's orchestra.

Origin of Measurements.

The word ell means arm, and thus ell-bow means the joint or bend in the arm. The ell measure was taken from the arm of Henry I, and if that was a yard and a quarter, it was of very unusual length! The capacity of the human body was also early put to the use of measurement; thus we have the expression, "A hop, step and jump," "A stone's throw," and the old saying, "Within a bowshot away."

FRENCH DECORATION FOR NEW ENGLAND N. G.

By Telegram to The Freeman.

With The American Army in France, April 28—(7 p. m.)—While German heavy guns roared at a short distance away, and the staccato of the snipers' fire was ever present, 117 members of the 104th Infantry Regiment, Massachusetts National Guard, and six members of other Bay State regiments were awarded the Croix de Guerre today.

This honor, the first award to an American regiment ever made by a foreign government, went to the troops which withstood the first German attack in force, and laid the 360 picked shock troops in the Apremont Wood sector, northwest of Toul, on April 16, 12 and 13.

The regiment formerly was the old Second and Eighth regiments of the National Guard. It had seen service on the Mexican border.

Throughout the American army there was pride that the sons of Lexington and Bunker Hill were the first to line up before a French general to receive medals for bravery.

Two chaplains of the regiment were among those decorated: Rev. John S. Desvalles, Catholic, and Rev. Walter S. Baker, Episcopalian; both for distinguished service in administering to the wounded and dying while under fire.

Six Salvation Army girls and a sprinkling of French peasant girls were among the spectators. The row of honor men stretched across the field, tall, slender and handsome American youth. Chaplain Desvalles at their head. As the French and American generals, accompanied by their staffs, crossed the field, a band played snatches of "The Star Spangled Banner" and "The Marseillaise."

Heavy artillery boomed on the battle line across the ridge, as the French general, in conferring the Croix de Guerre, said:

"This regiment showed during the battles of April 10, 12 and 13 the greatest audacity and a fine spirit of sacrifice. Subjected to very violent bombardments and attacked by very important German forces, your regiment succeeded in checking a dangerous advance and then with vigor and energy took at the point of the bayonet the new positions from which you had retired under the first assault."

The French general then passed down along the line of Massachusetts patriots, placing on the breast of each man the French war medal and shaking the hand of each man decorated.

He was followed by the American commander who grasped the hand of each and had words of encouragement. To one man he said: "Smile, lad; it is a proud day for you."

Men of the laboring classes wear out earlier than men of other classes because they have no break or variation in their work, no rest, no change. It is not effort, but continuous monotonous labor which ages a man.—Exchange.

Aged by Monotonous Work.

Philippine Burial.

One of the strange customs of the Igorrotes in the Philippines, when a woman dies, is to ornament her with her best finery in clothes, beads, and headress, and set the body up in state for a day prior to burial. In this pose the mother especially attends and mourns over the body. The men when they die or are killed, are buried with out this lying-in-state ceremony.

Tribute to Friendship.

"Friends," said John Hay, "are the sunshine of life. All men seek sunlight, and every man seeks a friend after his own kind and nature. The best and most intelligent of us admits the rarity and value of friendship; the worst and most ignorant of us is unwittingly the better for knowing some friendly companion."—Atlantic Monthly.

The Old-Time Cord.

The most common method of making cord wood is to cut the trees into four-foot lengths with an ax and split the larger pieces. The pieces are then piled in a standard cord, which is eight feet long, four feet high and four feet wide. The contents are 128 cubic feet, of which 70 per cent is wood and 30 per cent air. This is the old-fashioned regulation cord of wood.

Happiness in Love of Books.

ODDS AND ENDS.

Miss Hess has moved her hairdressing and manicuring parlors from 3 1/2 Main street to 292 Fair street, opposite Hotel Stayesant.

The regular monthly meeting of the Ladies' Aid Society of St. James M. E. Church, will be held Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock in the church parlors.

The ladies who are making Red Cross hospital garments under the directions of Mrs. Hayes will meet this evening as usual in Red Cross headquarters. Although the class has grown the past two weeks many more workers are needed.

The King's Daughters of the Clinton Avenue M. E. Church will hold an all day social at the home of Mrs. Emmett Silkworth, 350 Hasbrouck avenue, Tuesday. Those who are unable to attend in the morning are invited to come in the afternoon. Please bring thimbles.

The regular monthly meeting of the Parent-Teachers' Association of school No. 4 will be held Tuesday evening at 7:30 o'clock in the school building. The president, Mrs. W. R. Anderson will read her report of the spring conference held in Poughkeepsie. Professor R. J. Service of the high school faculty, will give a talk on gardens. A full attendance is desired.

ASHOKAN.

Ashokan, April 29.—The Ladies' Aid Society will hold their monthly business meeting on Thursday afternoon, May 2nd, at the home of Miss Bertha Greene.

Miss Dorothy Every and Miss Blanche Hughes spent a couple of days in Kingston the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. John Davis spent Sunday with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. Herrick, of West Hurley.

The Rev. G. O. Wilsey returned home from Catskill on Saturday after spending the week with his family, also making much needed improvements on his place there.

The Rev. Mr. Miller of Albany, gave a most interesting lecture on the work of the Civic League in the M. E. church on Sunday which was largely attended.

Seized With Convulsions.

Saturday evening about 10 o'clock Mrs. Tillie Wrenn of No. 47 Newkirk avenue was seized with convulsions near 438 Hasbrouck avenue. She was attended by Dr. Bongartz and later removed to her home in the city ambulance.

GOOD THINGS FOR THE TABLE.

In the spring time green things appeal to the appetite, we need them as blood purifiers and various combinations may be used to lend variety.

Onion Salad.
Scoop out the centers from three Spanish onions that have been peeled.
Fill each with highly seasoned chicken, sausage or meat or nuts or bread crumbs and butter and salt and pepper. Add a little water to the baking dish and bake them until brown and tender. When the onions are cold, cut them in quarters and place them on a bed of water cress, lay a sardine on each quarter of the onion and serve with French or boiled dressing.

Oatmeal Bread.—Take two cupsful of oatmeal, one-half cupful of molasses, two teaspoonfuls of salt over this pour a pint of boiling water; when cool add yeast and flour to mix well. Let raise and when light form into loaves and bake when light.

Cod fish, the dried variety may make a most palatable main dish. Soak the fish and cook carefully not to break it, then drain carefully and let it simmer in a drawn butter sauce. Serve with baked potatoes. A most delicious white sauce for codfish is made by using sour cream instead of milk, preparing it in the same way.

Onions are delicious baked in their skins then peel them, season with butter, pepper and salt or cream, or if desired in a white sauce. They have quite a different flavor. Another delicious way to prepare onions is to roast them in the ashes or on the ledge of the furnace. Do not peel them as the skin will often be burned and it will be necessary to use care to remove all the charred portions.

Onions are also delicious stuffed with sausage, and baked, basting during the baking with the fat and some water.

Every particle of vegetable water not used as sauce for the vegetable when serving it should be saved. Add it to the soup kettle, if potato water, use it to stew meat or soup meat,
for gravies, griddle cakes or pastry, when well chilled. The valuable mineral salts contained in vegetable water should not be wasted.

Keep Striving.
Longing to share our troubles, or loving courage if fortune's wheel refuses to turn in our favor, is about the most unwise course we could possibly follow. Far better to keep quiet about all distressing setbacks, become interested in some form of work and bravely go in to win. True, one cannot always recoup one's fortune, but life offers many other compensations very much worth while.

MISSOURI SYNOD DECLARES LOYALTY

Atlantic District Convention of Largest Lutheran Body in America
Affirms Righteousness of American Cause in the War.

April 24th to May 1st the Atlantic
District of the Synod of Missouri, Ohio and other states, meets at Immanuel Lutheran Church, 88th street and Lexington avenue, New York city. The Atlantic District of the synod covers the eastern part of New York, the New England States and all of New Jersey. About three hundred or more pastors and lay delegates are convened to deliberate on the work of this district. The Synod of Missouri is the largest Lutheran body, having congregations in every part of the United States, in Canada, as well as in South America and Australia. President F. Pfotenhauer of Chicago is the president.

The convention opened with services at which Rev. J. Miller of Fort Wayne, Ind., delivered the convention sermon. Rev. Miller made a special reference to the times of war through which the country is passing.
In part he said:

"During the past months I have had occasion to travel through every part of the land, visiting our Lutheran churches and I find that our Lutheran Church is wholeheartedly standing up for the ideals of America and that our Lutherans are doing more than their share in sacrificing for the cause of this land. Just recently the great war fund campaign has called attention to the human sacrifice which our church has made to the nation. Then there are near two hundred thousand young men in the army and navy. Today there are many more and already the casualty lists are telling us that Lutheran blood has been shed on the soil of France for the cause of our country and the people at home have sacrificed beyond anything that they have done previously in order that in this war time situation, their church has come forward, and consolation might go with the men with the colors. In addition, Lutheran congregations have given of their substance and Lutheran people have freely given their money in order that the men that are on the firing line might be backed by the goods of the people at home.

"People ask, 'Are Lutherans loyal?' In the face of the ideals of Martin Luther, who established practically democracy in church and in state, in the face of what our Lutheran Churches have done and are doing in increasing measure, I am ready to say to the world there is no body of citizens as loyal to the republic, there is no body of citizens as vitaly necessary to the success of this land as are our Lutheran people."

The discussion on the floor of the convention is on the theme, "Separation of Church and State." Rev. A.
Von Schlichten of Yonkers, N. Y., is the leader in the discussion, having prepared the theses. The Lutheran Church is particularly strong in its emphasis on keeping the lines between church and state clearly defined and maintained. Rev. Von Schlichten in presenting the matter paid special attention to the many interests that are crowding upon the church very naturally in the demands of the nation for war time service.
He said: "It is obvious that the church is of greatest benefit to the state. This land would be hell unless the churches were at work. Its citizens would not be safe unless the churches continually maintained the moral standards and the ideals of the Christian faith and life. The church not only, however, that the church's work, even in the great demand of war, shall be turned aside from that great fundamental service which it must render. President Wilson expressed it very strikingly in a telegram which he sent to the Presbyterians, telling them the best service they can render to the nation in the war is if they continue their preaching and their other religious work and do it with perhaps greater emphasis than before."

The convention very strongly endorsed the statements of Rev. Von Schlichten and went on record that as far as the Lutheran Church is concerned, they are and will do everything in their power for their land, but their big job at present is to maintain spiritual preparedness by continuing in preaching the Gospel.

On Friday afternoon the convention adjourned in order to give the men opportunity to take part in the Liberty Loan parade, which had been arranged. Over 300 of the men took part.

On Wednesday evening a meeting was arranged to boost the Liberty Loan campaign. The Federal Reserve Bank of the New York District had appointed a Lutheran Committee, headed by Theodore Oster, president of the Fifth Avenue Bank, to sell Liberty Bonds amongst Lutherans. A great number of men turned out practically filling St. Luke's Lutheran Church off Times Square and in a number of speeches they were roused to help put the Third Liberty Loan over the top. The committee expects to add at least 2 million dollars to the Liberty Loan total for the New York district.

The high point of the convention was a meeting held on Sunday afternoon at Immanuel Church, the Convention Church, in the interest of the army and navy service of the synod.
The synod of Missouri has a special committee looking out for its men serving with the colors, and it is sending pastors to the camps here as well as to the fighting line across the seas.
The Rev. Paul Heckel, camp pastor at Camp Devens, Mass., and now commissioned to go over to France as the representative of the board, was one of the speakers. The other speakers were the Rev. O. Ungemach of Philadelphia, camp pastor at Camp Dix, and the Rev. A. R. G. Hanser of Brooklyn, camp pastor at Camp Upton.

Among other things the Rev. Mr.
Ungemach said: "Germany where stood the cradle of the Reformation, is still looked upon by many as a Lutheran country. This is a grave mistake. That country has long ago lost this treasure, which was once its possession, and is today suffering the scourge of God for its apostasy. John Sigismund, the head of the house of Bradenburg and ancestor of the present Kaiser, left the Lutheran Church in 1614 rejecting its teachings on the Lord's Supper, the person of Christ and the doctrine of predestination.

The last vestiges of true Lutheranism disappeared when in 1817 Fredereric William issued the famous appel for the union of all churches in that country, which was accomplished in 1822. Those Lutherans who assented to that union destroyed the last vestiges of Lutheranism in Germany. Carrying their pernicious spiritual propaganda to the ends of the earth, so-called 'Lutheran' professors, in reality prophets of Radica-lism, in theological departments of German Universities, have injected into the religious thought of the world the poison of unbelief."

"It was this intolerable condition of affairs, accompanied by persecution and tyranny which prompted our forefathers to emigrate to this country in the middle of the last century, and we of the second and third generation thank God that we are citizens of these United States of America, 'a government of the people, by the people and for the people; whose just powers are derived from the consent of the governed; a democracy in a republic; a sovereign nation of many sovereign states, a perfect union, one and inseparable; established upon those principles of freedom, equality, justice and humanity for which American patriots have sacrificed their lives and their fortunes.
We believe it to be our solemn duty before God to love our country; to support its constitution; to obey its laws, to respect its flag and to defend it against all enemies."

"For that reason we American Lutherans consider ourselves a privileged citizenry that in this hour of peril we are permitted to make a twofold sacrifice, a willing sacrifice for the maintenance of the ministry of the Gospel under all conditions, and a loyal sacrifice of the flower of our youth and the best part of our fortunes that sacred principles of our constitution may be the heritage of our children, and with God's blessing, the heritage of the world."

The election result was the following: The Rev. L. C. Schulze of Schoenectady, N. Y., was re-elected president; the Rev. H. Birkner of Boston was elected vice-president. The convention will remain in session until the first of May. The Rev. L. C.
Schulze, the president, during the past triumphant, in his presidential report, brought out the fact that the district had grown appreciably and urged upon the men especially in this opportunity created by the war to use their utmost endeavors to spread the teachings of the church. As a result, the convention decided to raise a $50,000 fund for home missions in this district. The raising of the fund is disposed into the hands of the Mission Board. The Rev. William Schoenfeld is chairman.

Ghost Photographs.
Those who are looking for novelty in photography may find it interesting to take a photograph of a ghost. Of course it will be a "fake" ghost. Get a friend to pose as the "ghost" and expose your negative allowing one-third of the proper time. Then let the "ghost" leave the room and expose the negative for the remaining two-thirds of the proper exposure. Of course the camera must not be moved and the "ghost" may be draped in white.

follows, viz:

ALL THAT TRACT OR PARCEL OF LAND, situate in the town of Woodstock, county of Ulster and state of New York, conveyed by Aaron N. Rieley and Anna
M. Rieley, his wife, to Elizabeth Diech, by deed bearing date the 31st day of October, 1907, and recorded in Ulster county clerk's office in book of deeds No. 190 at page 238, upon the 2nd day of November, 1874, and in said deed described as follows:

ALL THAT TRACT OR PARCEL OF LAND, situate on the south side of the highway called the Saugerties and Woodstock Turnpike, in the town of Woodstock and at the intersection of a crossroad leading from Woodstock to West Harley with said highway as above named, together with a dwelling house, barn, grist mill, machinery and buildings and other rights connected therewith, bounded and described as follows: Commencing at a point in the center of said Turnpike Road opposite to where the packet fence and stone wall joins on the south side of said road near or at the intersection of the road called the road with said Turnpike Road and runs from thence westerly in a line to its present height, and then easterly to the center of the Sawkill, from thence up and through the center of the said Sawkill near the bridge at a point in range with the center of the road called the Britt Road, from thence westerly to the road and up, the center of the said Britt Road to a point opposite the center, midway between the 8th and 9th

LOCAL CAMPAIGNS AND WAR.

Debate in the Senate on the Overman bill which seeks to give authority to the President to consolidate Governmental agencies and departments has become caustic. Criticism of the President and his methods is about as severe in Washington as it has been at any time on any subject during the past five years. Much of the criticism by Senators is along the same lines as that which is heard wherever men gather for free discussion; Senators express opinions which many times have been uttered throughout Ulster county, but in some cases their language is more severe.

Criticism by Senators has been directed principally at a subject to which attention has been called repeatedly by The Freeman—the appointment of incompetents to official positions requiring men of marked ability and intelligence. One could almost imagine that Senator Sherman of Illinois was offering an explanation rather than a criticism of the President's appointment of William J. Bryan as Secretary of State, were it not for the general trend of his talk, but the explanation seems feasible only in a Gilbert and Sullivan comic opera. It is nothing less than that the President, having once expressed curiosity as to whether some dignified way might not be discovered of knocking Mr. Bryan into a cocked hat, had solved his own conundrum by appointing him as Secretary of State, where grape juice and an incurable propensity to pacifism accomplished their fiendish designs. The premise may be wrong but the conclusion is correct.

Aside from Bryan and his cheap buffoonery, the criticism of many official appointments at Washington has been only too well directed to suit the responsibility accompanying our entrance in the war. For far too long a time after that event the paths of official duty in Washington were too strongly marked by pacifist tendencies to enable efficient wartime service to be rendered. Even Senator Overman, sponsor for the bill under discussion, in urging Senators to vote for his measure, said Congress had passed one law and had to pass another to make it operative, which could be done away with by "passing a bill that will let the President organize things the way he wants, so he won't have to ask any more legislation from us." Senator Fall, favoring the bill, expressed the hope "that the President will turn out the incompetents he has appointed and put competent men in their jobs."

There is no lack of competent men in America who realize the necessity for efficiency in office and are willing to serve the Government even at great personal sacrifice; many of them are now doing it. Mere desire to sacrifice and serve do not, however, indicate efficiency. Incompetents in office are due either to lack of judgment on the part of the President or in those recommending men for appointment, for the President necessarily cannot know personally every appointee, or to a desire to play politics either on the part of the President or his advisers. It is not unnatural for anyone to try to help a friend, but the man who tries to foist an incompetent upon the Government when we are at war is a traitor just as much as the man who plants a bomb in a munitions plant on whose output the army or navy is dependent.

The conduct of the war will be invoked to some extent in every local political contest in America no matter how remote the connection or how absurd the attempt to join the issues at stake locally and in the nation, and there will be unthinking attempts to check criticism just as surely as the critic shows his head. Likewise, criticism will be offered freely where it is undesired and uncalled for. The keynote of wise criticism was struck by Charles E. Hughes in his address before the American Newspaper Publishers' Association Thursday night when he said: "Furnishing material for criticism is by no means the same thing as giving aid and comfort to the enemy. Let the truth be known. The anxiety should be not to avoid disclosure but rather to prevent error. Rarely will the enemy be the calmer from our knowledge of the facts. He will thrive on

Before very long Ulster county will find itself taking active part in political campaigns of different kinds, and the war will figure more or less largely in political discussions. It would be well in such discussions to bear in mind another statement made by Mr. Hughes. It is this: "The world will never be made safe for democracy, in the last analysis, by anything short of a dominant sense of fairness and justice. A contemptible purveyor of slander, of malicious abuse of officers, of half-truths calculated to deceive, of demagogical appeal in order to win influence, influence and political power by playing upon ignorance and natural aspirations—that is the lurking enemy of our institutions which it is harder to defeat than even a Prussian autocrat. The extent of the impotency of this lurking enemy is the measure of our ultimate victory."

By all means, let us get rid of campaign lies and bars and determine issues, big or little, on facts. Self-respect will be preserved, and we shall be better for it in nation, state and community.

DR. DOWNER LOSES HIS HOUSE BY FIRE

Sunday Morning Blaze Was Fought By Congregation Which Had Dismissed When Alarm Was Given—Small Insurance on Property.

The large, handsome residence of Dr. M. B. Downer, at Woodstock, was entirely destroyed by fire Sunday morning. Most of the contents also were burned but the congregation of the Woodstock Methodist Church, which is situated across the street from the Downer place, together with neighbors succeeded in saving Dr. Downer's surgical instruments, large medical library and some of the first floor furnishings.

Mrs. Downer and the children were alone in the house when a young woman attending the patriotic service at the Methodist Church, who was leaving the church before the conclusion of the service, rushed in the house and informed Mrs. Downer that the house was afire. Somewhat incredulously, Mrs. Downer stepped to the lawn and looked upward. To her horror she saw flames at that instant bursting through the roof.

The fire was announced to the congregation of the Methodist Church by the sexton and the Rev. Mr. Libby, the pastor, promptly announced that the services were at an end. The entire congregation assisted in fighting the fire and in carrying out furniture, books and medical books, and whatever was saved from the house was due to their efforts.

The origin of the fire is not known, but as it was burning merely in the second and third floors, it is presumed to have been caused by a defective chimney flue. The destruction of the house and its contents is practically a total loss to Dr. Downer who carried only a small amount of insurance.

Neighbors are caring for Dr. and Mrs. Downer and their children. Dr. Downer will continue in practice and his present telephone is Woodstock 14.

The Downer residence was one of the largest and handsomest in Woodstock. It was of frame construction, three stories and basement, and the loss to Dr. Downer is a severe one.

Port Ewen, April 29.—Port Ewen Lodge, No. 656, I. O. O. F., will meet this evening at 8 o'clock in their rooms in Pythian Hall.

A meeting of the official board of the Methodist Church will be held on Wednesday evening, May 1, at 7:30 o'clock at the parsonage. The Boy Scouts of Kingston are now beginning their drive in the interest of the third Liberty loan as after the second Liberty loan do not start their work until the other workers have finished. The Scouts are expected to gather in what the rest have left, thus gleaming after the reapers. After the second Liberty loan the Boy Scouts brought in over $52,000, this time they are striving to make it $100,000. We have one member who will call on all that is possible to secure bonds. You have responded freely to the previous calls, be ready to help the "boys" in this drive when the Scout calls on you, thus encouraging true patriotism in the boys. Help them to go "over the top."

The Woman's Foreign Missionary Society of the Methodist Church will meet Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. John Lynn on Hamilton street at 3 o'clock. Miss Cynthia Lowe of Esopus is visiting Mrs. Rita Lowe on Schuyler street.

The regular monthly meeting of the Ladies' Aid Society of the Methodist Church will be held Thursday afternoon, May 2, at 3 o'clock in the church.

Miss Ella Lapine, who is employed at High Falls, spent the week and at her home on Green street.

Meeting of the Board of Port Ewen School.

Officer Found a Crank.

Sunday morning Officer Welch found a crank on East Chester street and accompanied the crank to headquarters at the city hall. In this case the crank is an auto crank and the owner may have it by calling at police headquarters.

KINGSTON SCOUTS AND LIBERTY BALL

There can be no question but that the Kingston Boy Scouts covered themselves with glory in connection with their participation in bringing the Liberty Ball from Saugerties to Kingston. Knowing the time that the great red, white and blue ball was expected to reach Saugerties, Marshal D. B. Atkins had expressed the wish that the ball be at the city limits at ten minutes of three o'clock, in order that the parade might be ready to move by 2 o'clock, sharp. So they went, the objective for the boys, the Scout officers and the Scout executive, the ball at the city limits at 2:50 o'clock.

The Rev. J. H. Larned, Scout Master of Troop 5, was at headquarters in the morning with his auto, which became the official car for the Scout organization for the day. Thanks to Mr. Heermans, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, four other cars had been secured in order to relay the troops to that spot where they should receive the ball from the hands of the Saugerties Scouts. The plan was to send the cars out fifteen minutes apart, to give the boys a lift and later to pick them up—if necessary—and help them along, to the Glenelg Hill, which was supposed to be the meeting place. When the official car reached this designated spot and found no ball, they proceeded on to Saugerties, where the mammoth and much worn ball was found surrounded by a number of Scouts, but evidently an object of little interest to the Saugerties people, as no preparations had been made for parade or any special welcome to the traveller. At 12:15 the first carload of Scouts arrived, all the way to Saugerties village, being brought in by Rodney B. Osterhout. Soon they were followed by the second delegation supposedly four miles toward Kingston, arrived in the car of Jacob A. Tromper. Even the third carload brought by Mr. Oppenheimer reached Saugerties, all of which complicated the situation of getting Boy Scouts and Ball entirely to the Kingston city limits on time, for no move had been made in Saugerties to go beyond the village with the ball.

Finally accompanied by the faithful Saugerties Scouts, and headed by their excellent Scout Drum Corps, the Scouts were all assembled just the other side of Glasco, with the ball ready for its final drive to Kingston. Reaching Glasco, another complication of a highly patriotic nature was encountered. The Glasco Band, in uniform awaited the Ball and the people of Glasco awaited the band plus the Ball and the Scouts, counting on viewing a real parade. The time was too short for more than a drive through a section of the main street, and then on the Scout escort came.

It was a fact, that thanks to the assistance of the men with cars, which included Scout Council President E. H. Bokart, the Ball was run all the way from Schoentag's to Kingston, and it was a dead tired but happy group of Scouts, officers and executive that arrived with the precious Ball at the city limits exactly at ten minutes of three o'clock.

There were several thrilling incidents connected with the trip. In for curious or ignorant or perverse motorists made it hard enough for the boys with their unwieldy and large-sized burden, going at a good rate of speed. Several hair breadth escapes were recorded, but these incidents still further tried the mettle of the Scouts to make their objective.

When they were close to the city limits, a very considerable length of guard ropes were added to the rope on the Ball, and every Boy Scout in the city, as well as the loyal and energetic Girl Scouts with their officers, had the privilege of helping pull the ball into town. It was estimated that with the Saugerties Scouts, there were fully 100 Scouts holding onto the rope.

It was a feat to be proud of, to have covered the distance in the time allowed so precisely, so little did the Scouts care that they were no end of tired, hot and dusty, for wasn't it all to help in the third Liberty loan sale? And that is a subject just now close to the heart of Boy Scouts all over the country.

Met at the city limits by Company M and the other participants in the parade, the Scouts continued to roll the ball into the city and down to the ferry slip. There they maneuvered to get through the big crowd and rolled the Liberty Ball onto the tug which was to take it to Rhinebeck. Incidentally that same tug also took some fifty Scouts across the river, as well. The tug steamed away to the music of "The Star Spangled Banner," played by the "Colonial Band, and amidst the cheers of the crowd. As their final act in this historic and patriotic performance, the Scouts delivered the Ball to the Scouts of Rhinebeck, helping them to roll it up the hill, and then returned home, dead tired, but proud and happy.

BUY LIBERTY BOND SAYS LIEUT. DE VALL

Ulster County Soldier Many Years in the Army Writes From France to Urge Purchase of Liberty Bonds.

Somewhere in France,
April 1, 1918.

Dear Friend:

At last we are in position to appreciate in a measure, the real import and purpose of the war. With our own eyes we have seen the results of nearly four years of the great World Conflict, and more than ever are we resolved, as a whole, to cheerfully and willingly do our "bit" to bring permanent and lasting victory on the side of safe and sane universal democracy.

Our great government, of which you and I are a part, has a responsibility which we must all help assume. Unobscuringly, I am doing my part to the very best of my ability, and know you are anxious to do your part, too.

The Third Liberty Loan Campaign starts April 6th and will last for three for four weeks. It is important not only to me personally, but to every American soldier, that this loan be fully subscribed in record time. The Great Spring Drive is on over here, and every one of the boys is hoping the folks at home will stand back of us morally to the last ditch. This means BUY A LIBERTY BOND. Urge your friends and our friends to BUY A LIBERTY BOND.

If you really appreciate what this small service to our country means, Liberty Bonds will be mighty scarce right off the bat.

I am interested in knowing how you feel about it. Will you let me know?

With every good wish, as ever

JOHN R. DE VALL,
1st Lieut. 126th Inf.,
A. E. F.

John R. Devall enlisted in the Marines at Brooklyn, N. Y., in 1907. He served four years, enlisted in the regulars in 1914 and served four years on the border and sailed for France in February. He is a son of Mrs. M. A. Devall of Mt. Tremper. He was commissioned first lieutenant last May. Lieutenant Devall was home in February for one day for the first in 11 years.

GEARY KNOCKED DOWN BY AUTO

Was Alighting From a Trolley Car When Ford Driven by Miss Mildred Walton Struck Him—Member of Fire Department.

Fireman William J. Geary, of the Central Fire Station, was knocked down and injured this morning by an automobile driven by Miss Mildred Walton of Lucas turnpike. Fortunately Mr. Geary was not as seriously injured as thought at first.

He was just alighting from a Broadway trolley car at the corner of East O'Reilly street on his way to the fire station when hit. He was removed to the Central Fire Station and Dr. Daniel Connolly summoned, who had him removed to the Kingston City Hospital, where it was found that no bones were broken, but he had been severely shaken up. Later he left the hospital for his home.

The auto that struck him was a Ford. The driver, Miss Walton, was on her way to the high school.

Our Growing Population.

Mr. and Mrs. John Miller of Cedar street, are receiving congratulations over the arrival of a daughter at their home. While they have been blessed with sons they had never before had a girl and the attending physician with a smile suggested that if the Stork left a girl this time it be named Liberty Bell. Sure enough Mr. Stork deposited a baby girl, and the parents adopted the physician's suggestion somewhat by naming the babe Liberty Belle.

Theodore Roosevelt Brown has arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Henry Brown at 56 West Strand.

Mr. and Mrs. John Troy are receiving congratulations over the arrival of a boy at their home, No. 60 East Strand.

Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Bowers of No. 79 Abel street, are receiving congratulatory over the arrival of a girl at their home.

MAGUIRE IS IN SOUTH CAROLINA

Lamar Crawford has received the following letter from F. Maguire, who is doing his bit. Mr. Maguire at present is in South Carolina but expects to soon go "over there."

Dear friend:
I am writing a few lines of thanks to you in appreciation of those articles that you sent to me through the Red Cross, and I don't know how to tell you how glad I was to receive them. Everything you sent is mighty useful to a soldier.

We are expecting to go across soon, but I don't know just when. This branch of the service I am in is something new, we are the first regiment of its kind organized in the U. S.; we will be equipped with motor trucks instead of horses.

I enlisted in the field artillery and since then I have been in the first regiment of its kind organized in the U. S.; we will be equipped with motor trucks instead of horses.

I am not used to writing letters and I hardly know what to write about. I will always remember your kindness and if our command comes back, and we all expect to, I will go to Kingston to see you in nearly time for tea, so I will have to quit. I wish you the best of good luck.

DINNER GIVEN AT THE EAGLE HOTEL

By Mayor Canfield and Others in Honor of the Members of the Liberty Coach Party.

The Liberty Coach arrived in Kingston about five o'clock Saturday afternoon. Admiral Higginson and Mrs. Higginson and Mayor Canfield met the coach party at Lake Katrine and rode in to Kingston on the coach. An informal dinner was given Saturday evening at the Eagle Hotel. It was just a get together affair and there were no speeches made.

Those at the dinner were, besides the members of the coach party, Mayor Canfield and Mrs. Canfield, Justice Hasbrouck and Mrs. Hasbrouck, R. E. Leighton and Mrs. Leighton, D. G. Atkins, Mr. and Mrs. Elva H. Bokart.

Interesting incidents of the trip were told by the different members of the coach party. In every city the Liberty Coach and Liberty Ball were given a great reception, and resulted in stimulating the sale of Liberty Bonds.

Frank D. Lyon, one of the members of the coach party, spoke at the high school auditorium Saturday night when the war pictures were shown.

Mr. Lyon was introduced by Mayor Canfield. Mr. Lyon proved to be an interesting speaker and his address was listened to with close attention.

An inspiring address was also made by Justice Hasbrouck.

Drum Corps to Meet.

There will be an important meeting this evening of the Bailey Pipe and Drum Corps and every member is urged to attend. The organization needs more life and drum players and would like to hear from young men who can play either of these. Arrangements will also be made this evening for the music to be furnished by the corps at the parade Tuesday morning in honor of the recruits.

"The Little Sinner."

This evening, "The Little Sinner," a drama in four acts, will be presented by the Knights of St. John at St. Peter's Hall. The performance begins at 8 o'clock and will be followed by dancing, music being furnished by Prof. Schwalbach. There will also be refreshments. The entertainment will be repeated on Tuesday evening.

HIS BACK BROKEN WHEN CAR STARTS

John Terpening, of Union Center, was badly injured Saturday when his car was run down by his own automobile. Mr. Terpening has been carrying employees between the powder works at Fort Crown to their homes at various sections of the town of Esopus. At Rifton he was cranking a car when it suddenly started forward before he could get out of the way and knocked him down. His back was broken and his condition is considered serious. He was removed to his home and attended by Dr. G. W. Ross of Port Jervis.

COMPANY M WILL DINE AND SMOKE

Company M will celebrate the anniversary of their marching away to war by a dinner and smoker to be held May 2 at Cuneo's Hotel. Like Katrine. Automobiles will leave the armory at 6 o'clock that afternoon and it is expected there will be a large attendance of Spanish-American War Veterans. The committee in charge of the affair are: Captain Harry Canfield, sergeant, William G. Merrill, Joseph M. Fowler and George Winter.

KNOCKED DOWN BY MOTORCYCLE

Late Saturday afternoon John Kroszinski, 6 years old, of Meadow street, was knocked down on Broadway by a motorcycle driven by a young man named Parslow. The boy was removed to the Kingston City Hospital where it was found he had a broken leg. He was removed to his home Sunday that he was recovered.

Police Arrest Two.

Sunday Detective Goodsell of the West Shore arrested John Santoro, 27 years old, of Hackensack, N. J., who he found riding on the pilot of a passenger engine. This morning in police court John said he had come north seeking a job, but not riding one was on his way home. He was without money as he had lost a ride back. He was given a ride back to his home. He was arrested by Officer Fout for driving his motorcycle on the car on the left hand side. John Schrick fined him $5 which he paid.

GERMAN PASTOR URGES LIBERTY LOAN

And Not in Vain as He Sold $1,250 in Bonds at Sunday Meeting in Spring Street Lutheran Church.

The Rev. A. Schmidt, pastor of the Spring Street German Lutheran Church, Sunday morning invited his congregation to remain at the close of the service to give him a chance to comply with the request of the government made to pastors and churches throughout the country to make an appeal for the Third Liberty Loan. The large congregation remained and Pastor Schmidt made the following eloquent appeal:

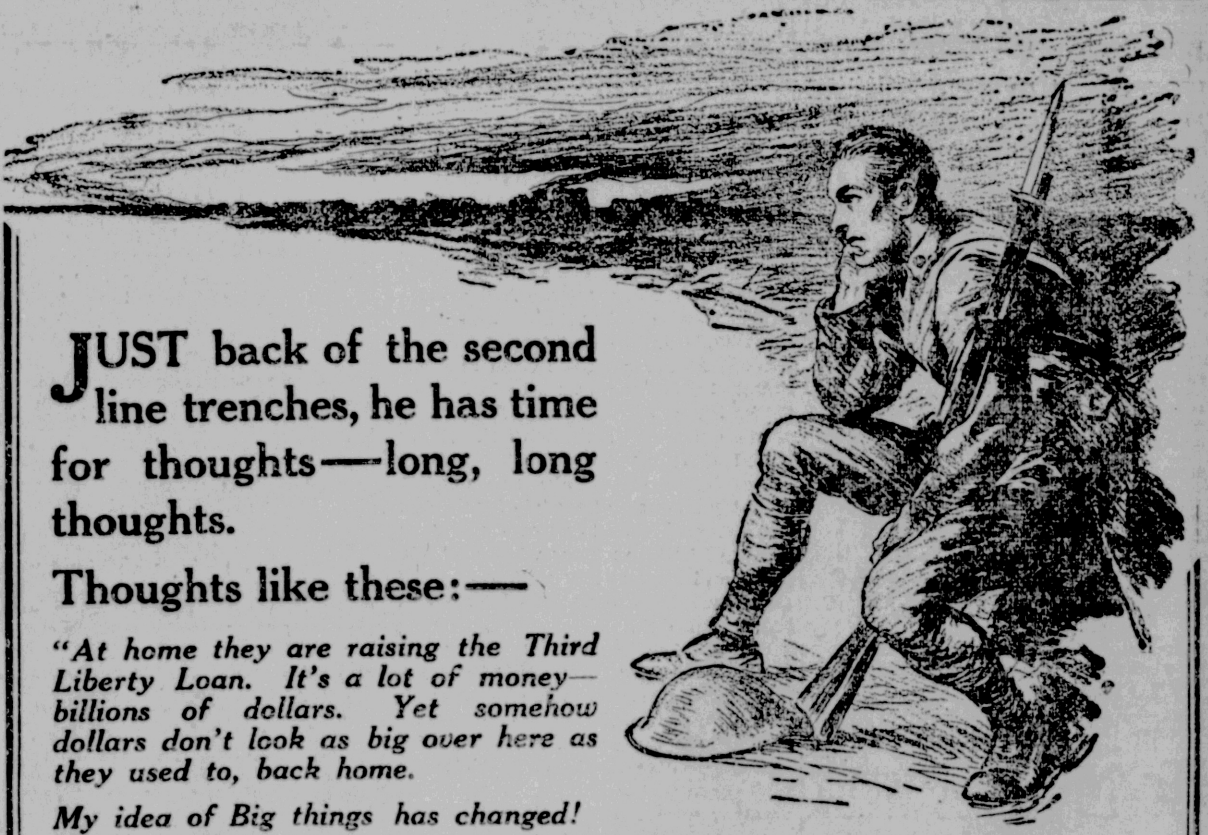

"It is the imperative duty of every citizen to support the government in this critical hour. Every citizen has to bear his share of the burdens which war brings upon our nation. We have to pay war taxes on many things, and our sons have to serve our country as soldiers. All this is compulsory, and without such compulsion the war could not be carried on. But there is an opportunity to serve our country voluntarily and this is the better service."

"A large part of the enormous war expense must be defrayed by free will contributions. Every citizen must be willing and ready to make sacrifices without being compelled to do so. And we citizens of German birth or German origin do not lag behind our fellow citizens. We must prove it, and it gives me great pleasure to be able to say without fear of contradiction that the bulk of the large German population in this country numbering over 25,000,000, prove it. They are proving that they are as patriotic and as loyal as those whose ancestors came to this country on the Mayflower, and as those who act and speak as if they were the only true Americans."

"Men of German blood helped Washington to establish the liberty of this country, and helped Lincoln to preserve the Union, and today they do all they can for the country of their adoption. Not with many words and bombastic speeches or raging sermons, but with deeds. Let us prove our loyalty and thereby put to silence those who confound the innocent with the guilty, the loyal with the disloyal; who forget that even in the fight against the enemy it is for Americans to keep sane and to fight fair as our fathers did. The narrowness and prejudice of some hysterical patriots is absolutely at variance with American principles and traditions."

"Only a few days yet and the time for the Third Liberty Loan is up. Those who have not secured a Liberty Bond should do so at once. I am ready to receive subscriptions at my study, and request you to see me at any time from now until the fourth of May."

It is reported that Pastor Schmidt secured subscriptions to Liberty Bonds amounting to $1,250 from some of his members. This morning Pastor Schmidt received the following communication:

JUST back of the second line trenches, he has time for thoughts—long, long thoughts.

Thoughts like these:—

"At home they are raising the Third Liberty Loan. It's a lot of money—billions of dollars. Yet somehow dollars don't look as big over here as they used to, back home."

My idea of Big things has changed!

Food and warm clothes, ships, guns, shells, medicine, bandages, ambulances, aeroplanes—Victory—they're the Big Things over here.

For we've got to carry on and end this hell—forever.

And this idea about the Big Things must get across to the folks at home.

They know we're out for Victory—they won't fail us. Of course they'll buy Liberty Bonds!

A million men, our husbands, our sons, our brothers, are thinking thoughts like these.

We must be worthy of their faith in us.

This space donated by the Standard Oil Company of N. Y.

We must buy Liberty Bonds.

INJURED CHASING GANG OF ROWDIES

Officer Arthur Dempsey Fell Injuring His Knee on Grand Street—Is Confined to His Home—Gang is Known.

Officer Arthur Dempsey, of the police department, is confined to his home on Delaware avenue with an injured knee sustained when he fell while chasing a gang of rowdies on Grand street shortly after midnight Sunday morning. The gang were making the night hideous with their racket and Officer Dempsey went after them. They scattered and ran, but the officer before he fell managed to capture the hat of one of the gang. All of the gang are known and there is a probability that there will be further developments in the case. Officer Dempsey was injured shortly after 1 o'clock but gamely continued on duty until 3:40, when he had to give up. Police Surgeon Norwood had him removed to his home. The injury to the knee is said to be severe and he will likely be laid up for some time.

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

New York, April 29.—The feature of the trading at the beginning of business on the stock market today was the scant offering of all classes of stocks. There was a moderate demand which caused advances in the first few minutes on a small volume of business, but after that period the market was soon again in a waiting disposition and some recessions were noted. Steel Common opened 1/2 higher at 95 1/2, and reacted to 94 1/2. Inspiration also made a gain of 1/2 to 52 1/2, and small fractional gains were made in Anaconda and American Smelting. Distillers became prominent, moving up 3/4 to 61 1/2, and Industrial Alcohol rose 1/4 to 124 1/2. Some of the railroad stocks were established at moderately higher levels. Union Pacific making a gain of 3/4 to 118 1/2; Southern Railway 1/4 to 21, and New Haven 3/4 to 29. Baldwin Locomotive yielded 1/4 at the opening to 80.

Liberty 4's sold at 96.76 while the 3 1/2's were trading in at 99.20.

Strength was shown throughout the forenoon. Steel Common rose 1/4 to 95 1/2. New Haven advanced 1/4 to 29 1/2. Corn products were up 1/4 to 39 1/2, and Distillers rose one point to 61 1/2. Liberty Bonds were strong, the 3 1/2's moving up to 99.24, and the 4's to 96.82.

Business dwindled away to a small volume during the afternoon, only a few transactions being made in the usual active issues. Prices were fairly well maintained however. Distillers Securities, after selling down to 50 1/2, moved up to 51 1/2. Internation

Paper was in supply, dropping 1/4 to 39 1/2, and Marine Preferred dropped one point to 86. Steel Common held steady around 95.

The market closed dull today; government bonds unchanged; railway and other bonds steady.

LOCAL DEATH RECORD.

Recent Deaths and Funerals of Persons in This Vicinity.

John O'Connor, for many years an employe of the Saugerties Manufacturing Co., died Saturday at his home on Partition street, Saugerties, after a lingering illness. He is survived by three daughters, all of Saugerties.

The funeral of the late William MacMullen, who died at his home on Barclay Heights, Saugerties, on Friday, was held at Trinity Episcopal Church on Sunday afternoon, and was largely attended. Washington Hook and Ladder Company, of which he was a member, attended in a body. Rev. Thomas Cole officiated. Interment was in Trinity Cemetery.

Thomas W. Aikenhead, 88 years old, died at his home in New Rochelle Saturday. He was born in Scotland. He was at one time in partnership with E. Millen of the firm of E. Millen and Company of this city and New York and in later years with Millen, Aikenhead and Company.

Funeral will be held Tuesday and the factory in this city will remain closed that day.

Marcella Park died at the home of her sister-in-law, Mrs. Mary Park, No. 8 Clinton avenue, Sunday morning. She is survived by one brother, John, of Walden. The funeral will be held from the residence of Mrs. Park Wednesday morning at 8 o'clock. Interment in Walkill Valley Cemetery, Walden. Services will be held Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock from St. Andrew's Episcopal Church, Walden.

Mary Josephine Melville died at the residence of her parents Saturday. Besides her parents she is survived by six brothers, John, a soldier, who is stationed at Spartanburg, S. C., Thomas, Edward, William, Albert and Woodrow, at home, and one sister, Catherine, also at home. The funeral will take place from the residence of her parents, No. 1 Ponckhockie street, Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock and from St. Mary's Church at 9:30, where a requiem mass will be offered for the repose of her soul. Interment in the family plot in St. Mary's Cemetery. Miss Melville was a graduate of St. Mary's School and of Spencer's Business School. She had recently passed the civil service examination and accepted a government position in Washington. She had a host of friends who will mourn her loss.

The funeral of Jacob Frear was held at his late home on Main street, Ellenville, Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock. A large attendance of relatives and friends were at the service, which was conducted by Rev. J. A. Appleby of the M. E. Church. The subject of his very excellent remarks was from Genesis 15:15: "And thou shalt go to thy fathers in peace. Thou shalt be buried in a good old age." A high tribute was paid to the life of the deceased, who had passed his 97th year. Guy L. Gould and Miss Carolyn Clark sang two beautiful selections. The bearers were friends of deceased, James Myers, Albert Fuller, Lewis N. Edsall, Gilbert H. Frances, Thomas Van Dusen and Herbert Thysen. The floral tributes of friends and relatives were beautiful. The grandsons, Harry and Howard Frear, with their wives were present from Schenectady. Relatives and friends were present from Summitville, Pine Bush and Ulster Heights.

At a meeting of the Niagara Reservation Commission held at the reservation headquarters at Niagara Falls on Friday of last week, Judge Clearwater was unanimously elected president of the commission. This commission is charged by law with the custody, control and management of the American Falls and of the state park at Niagara. It is composed of five commissioners, who serve simply from a willingness to be of public service, and without compensation. They are appointed by the governor and hold office for five years. Judge Clearwater was appointed by Governor Whitman in 1916, and from the time of his appointment has manifested a deep interest in the work of the commission. He is said to have the largest collection of aquatints, medals and books relative to Niagara which exists.

SOLDIER DOES NOT LIKE THE "NEEDLE"

Lamar, Crawford of 66 South Manor avenue has received the following letter:

Dear Mr. Crawford:
I wish to thank you right heartily for the comfort kit. It is just the thing a soldier needs to make camp life easier and cleaner.

I have just been enjoying the needle. The inoculation is to prevent typhoid, paratyphoid and smallpox. Some more of the needle will come soon; however, I would not care of some more did not come.

There was a big parade here today for the entertainment of Governor Whitman and others. Our company is green yet, so we were not in the parade.

Sincerely yours,
(Signed) PRENTICE R. SMITH,
396th Infantry, Co. I, Camp Upton,
N. Y.

OUR DAILY PATTERN.

2237—A Popular Model.

In these days of Domestic Science, canning and preserving, a dress of this style will be very acceptable and desirable. In blue gingham, striped seersucker, chambray or linen. It makes an ideal housedress. The sleeve may be finished in wrist or elbow length.

The pattern is cut in 7 sizes: 34, 36, 38, 40, 42, 44 and 46 inches bust measure. Size 36 requires 5½ yards of 44-inch material. The lower edge measures about 2½ yards.

A pattern of this illustration mailed to any address on receipt of 10 cents in silver or stamps by the Pattern Department, The Freeman, Rondout, N. Y. Be sure to state the size wanted.

Catalogue Notice.

Send 10c in silver or stamps for our Up-to-Date Spring and Summer, 1918, Catalogue, containing 550 designs of Ladies', Misses' and Children's Patterns, a concise and comprehensive article on dressmaking; also some points for the needle (illustrating 30 of the various, simple stitches) all valuable hints to the home dressmaker.

THE POLITICAL CALENDAR FOR 1918

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

Albany, April 29.—With the fall primaries set for September 3, the enrollment of women for May 25 and the registration days for October 7, 8, 9, 10, 11 and 12 in New York city; October 11, 12, 18 and 19 for other places of 5,000 population or more and for October 12 and 19 in the rural sections, the political calendar for 1918 has just been issued from the office of Secretary of State Francis M. Hugo. Preliminary campaign activities will really get under way in places of 5,000 or more on May 25 with an enrollment of women from 8 a. m. to 10 p. m. Certificate enrollment of women in places of less than 5,000 population will take place from May 18 to June 15. The calendar for the year is as follows:

May 16 to June 15—Certificate enrollment of women in places of less than 5,000 population.

May 25—Personal enrollment of women in places of 5,000 or more.

July 2—First day for signing petitions.

July 30 to August 6—Dates for filing designating petitions.

August 16—Last day to decline designations.

August 20—Last day to fill vacancy after declaration.

August 22—Certification by secretary of state to the custodian of primary records of designations filed.

September 3—Fall primaries: New York city, 1 p. m. to 9 p. m. Outside of New York city, 7 a. m. to 9 p. m.

September 9—Last day on which custodian of primary records can certify results.

August 27 to September 9—Dates for filing town nominations.

September 3 to September 12—Dates for filing independent nominations.

September 14—Last day for declining town or independent nominations.

September 17—Last day for filling vacancies of such.

October 7, 8, 9, 10 and 11—Personal registration New York city, 5 p. m. to 10:30 p. m. and October 12 from 7 a. m. to 10:30 p. m.

October 11, 12, 18 and 19—Personal registration in cities and villages of 5,000 or more, except New York city, 7 a. m. to 10 p. m.

October 12 and 19—Non-personal registration outside of cities and villages of 5,000 or more, 7 a. m. to 10 p. m.

November 5—General election day.

It will be noticed that primary day occurs two weeks earlier than usual. While this will lengthen the fall campaign it will, however, give more time for preparing and handling the soldier vote both in the United States and possibly abroad. The latter still being under advisement. A simplified ballot for the use of men in the service has been devised.

Instead of 6,000 signers to nominate state officers by independent parties, it now requires 12,000 signers with at least 50 from each county in the state.

Hamilton counties being socked as one. Town nominations, instead of being filed twenty days before election as has been the case, must now be filed not earlier than the tenth Tuesday and not later than six days after the ninth Tuesday. Independent nominations must now be filed not earlier than the ninth Tuesday and not later than two days after the eighth Tuesday preceding general election day.

ACTIVITY MENUS.

These menus, planned to conserve time, labor and money, and to save the foods that are scarce and use those of which there is an abundance, are Victory Menus in move senses than one. They are prepared by the Department of Home Economics of the State College of Agriculture and endorsed by the New York State Food Commission.

Tuesday.

Breakfast—Rhubarb sauce; pinhead oatmeal cooked in milk; corn muffins; coffee.

Lunch or Supper—Browned hash with green peppers; salad; of left-over greens; toasted muffins; gingered apples with cream.

Dinner—Green pea loaf with tomato sauce; scalloped potatoes; custard soufflé with fruit juice.

Milk for the children to drink at each meal.

(May be omitted and still leave a balanced meal.)

To give variety to the breakfast meal, try cooking cereals in all of one-half milk. It may be served with top milk or cream in the usual way and is delicious.

Corn Muffins.

One and one-half cups cornmeal; ½ teaspoon soda; 1 teaspoon baking powder; 1 teaspoon salt; 1 egg; beaten; 1 cup sour milk; 1 tablespoon sirup; 2 tablespoons melted fat. Mix the dry ingredients and add them to the milk and beaten egg. Add the fat last. Bake the muffins in greased tins in a moderate oven for 25 minutes.

Gingered Apples.

Six medium-sized apples; ¼ cup honey; ½ cup water; 1 tablespoon chopped ginger root, candied. Wash and core the apples, leaving them whole, and arrange in a baking dish. Mix the honey, hot water and ginger root together, and pour around the apples. Cover and bake slowly until the apples are tender.

Green Pea Loaf.

One and one-half cups cooked dried peas; 1½ cups bread crumbs; 1½ cups milk; 1 slightly beaten egg; 1 slice onion, chopped; salt and pepper.

Scald the milk, add the onion, bread crumbs, peas and the egg. Season to taste. Bake in a buttered baking dish in a moderate oven until firm—about 20 minutes. Beans, mashed carrots, fish or corn may be used in place of peas.

Recipes for any of the dishes in these menus which cannot be found in cook books, may be had by writing to the Department of Home Economics, State College of Agriculture, Ithaca, N. Y.

Farewell Supper.

A supper was tendered at the Cafe of S. Brown, Abeel street, on Friday evening to John Ostrander, who leaves for camp tomorrow morning.

The supper was given by the following employees of Jacob Rice & Sons and friends: Arthur Britcliffe, Charles Bauer, Ronald Brown, Charles Bosh, S. Brown, F. Disher, Casper Nichols, Frank Quinler, Henry Raichle, Wm. Frhart, Frank Grant, Ed Roylea, Richard Smith, Alvin Boker, Ed. Curr, Lawrence, Hicks, Archie Brynes, Martin Peterson, Geo. Kirebner, Frank Glennon, Thos. Glennon, Jacob Kiets, Patrick McGeecey, Ed. Ostrander, Frank Haber, Henry Raderburg, Joy S. Roca, Maurice Rice, John Wolf, John Harder, Albert Wolf, Charles Burger, John McCutcheon, John Albright, Benj. Freer, George Decker, Charles Nelson, Michael Baber, Fred Keener, Alex. Ostrander, Charles Meyers, H. Swint, Joseph Tessio, R. Hurley, Joseph Smith, Charles Brewer, John Hogan, Joseph Coughlin, Ray Peterson, H. Mattie, J. Harney and Floyd Hicks. After enjoying the bountiful supper provided by Host Brown, patriotic address were made by Alderman S. Brown and John Albright, the latter also singing "The Star Spangled Banner;" J. S. Rosa describing the meaning and colors of the Stars and Stripes and Joseph Byrnes entertained with comical songs. After all bidding Brother Ostrander "Au Revoir," but not goodbye, the evening was closed by all singing "He's a Jolly Good Fellow," and telling him to be sure and get the "Kaiser."

"Officer 666" a Grand Success.

The largest crowd ever assembled in East Kingston hall was present Saturday evening when a fine rendition of Augustin MacHugh's splendid metropolitan melodrama, "Officer 666," was given by St. Colman's Dramatic Club, under the direction of Father Francis P. J. Cummings.

Michael Fay, Jr., as Travers Gladwin, a millionaire collection of valuable paintings, and John F. Hurson, as Alf Wilson, a picture expert and artist, were well appreciated in the interpretation of their respective roles. Joseph Whitaker, as a Japanese servant, was also very well applauded. The other members of the cast, Miss Ella V. Redden, Miss Kathryn C. Eiko, Miss Alice Redden, John Acker, Vincent Redden, John P. McNally, Thomas Leonard, James Volk, Fred Ballard, Walter Martin and Martin Carr, Jr., did remarkably well in their parts. Between the second and third acts Miss Ella Redden sang "That's a Baby's Prayer at Twilight" and received loud acclamation. Good dance music was supplied by Prof. Muller. "Officer 666" will be repeated this evening and music will be furnished by Palen's orchestra.

Origin of Measurements.

The word ell means arm, and thus elbow means the joint or bend in the arm. The ell measure was taken from the arm of Henry I, and if that was a yard and a quarter, it was of very unusual length! The capacity of the human body was also early put to the use of measurement; thus we have the expression, "A hop, step and a jump," "A stone's throw," and the old saying, "Within a bowshot away."

LIBERTY CROP TO OFFSET UKRAINE

Control of the food producing resources of the Ukraine promises to be of decided advantage to the morale of the enemy.

An endeavor must be promptly made by the Allies to counteract this; the enemy's forced food levy from the Ukraine must be met by a free-will offering, by an American Liberty Crop.

As a means toward this end I would suggest that each state in the Union, through properly authorized committees, and through contributions and voluntary service, should, for the harvest years of 1919 and 1920 raise food products on its public lands, and on the national lands within its boundaries. Said food products, to be known as the "Liberty Crop," to be delivered to the warehouses designated, and to be tendered by the states, free of charge, as a free-will offering to the United States Government, and to the Allies. The United States Government to appropriate this "Liberty Crop" between itself and its Allies.

It is suggested that the approximate value of the Liberty Crop should be fixed either at a minimum of 250,000,000 (two hundred and fifty million dollars) or at a maximum of 500,000,000 (five hundred million dollars) for each year.

If all this is to be done, a resolution should at once be passed by the United States Congress authorizing the states to use the national public lands for this purpose, and further empowering the president to take up the matter of the proposed Liberty Crop with the governors of the several states, who:

1. Each governor shall summon meetings of farmers, business men, and others in his state, who shall form committees, which are to be empowered to proceed with the details of the work, all on a volunteer basis, free of charge, excepting in the case of laborers performing the field work of cultivating and harvesting.

2. Funds for this purpose shall be obtained from contributions collected by the committees from the people generally.

3. States having but a small area of public lands could contribute the equivalent toward these Liberty Crops by subscriptions in money, by the loan of agricultural implements and machinery, and by the application of labor.

4. To perpetuate the memory of this event, Congress could authorize suitable mementos in the form of medals, engravings, or "Liberty Stars," to be presented to each state contributing its ratio to the Liberty Crop.

LARGE CROWD SEES THE LIBERTY BALL

Coach Arrived Late—Parade and Demonstration Held in Honor of These Symbols of Freedom—Coach Party Stayed Here Saturday Night.

The Liberty Ball, on its journey from Buffalo to New York, arrived here about three o'clock Saturday afternoon and was given a stirring reception. The Liberty Coach also arrived, but not until some time after the ball. It was said that a balky horse was the cause of the delay.

Under a line of American flags strung across Albany avenue the ball rolled by Boy Scouts crossed the city line and after only a short delay the parade started.

The parade was composed of Company M, Pratt Post, No. 127, G. A. R.; Colonial Camp, Spanish War Veterans, No. 75; Old Guard of Ulster County; Tappan Camp, No. 57, Sons of Veterans; Ladies' Auxiliary, Tappan Camp, No. 53, S. of V.; officers and men in active federal service; high school boys and girls; scouts; police; superintendent and principals of schools; business and professional men; civic and fraternal societies; committee on arrangements; Colonial City Band; Bailey Pipe and Drum Corps.

The parade started on Albany avenue, at the city line and the line of march was to St. James street, to Broadway, to the Rhinecliff ferry.

Business places and houses along the line of march were decorated with the national colors, and nearly every person marching carried or wore a small American flag.

Hundreds of spectators lined the streets. The Liberty Ball, of course, was the big feature and many comments were heard relative to this novel symbol of liberty.

Many were disappointed at not seeing the Liberty Coach. When it did not come with the Liberty Ball many persons thought that the coach would not be here, and they did not wait for it.

At the Rhinecliff ferry the ball was put on the tug "Rob" and conveyed to Rhinecliff, where it was met by Boy Scouts and rolled to Rhinebeck.

The passengers on the coach stayed in Kingston Saturday night, at the Eagle Hotel. They were Maurice Howlett, Paris, France; Miss Hollins, East Islip, L. I.; Frank D. Lyon, Binghamton, N. Y.; Mrs. Arthur Iselin, New York.

The party went to Rhinebeck Sunday morning. At Rhinecliff they were met by a delegation of motorists who accompanied them to Rhinebeck.

At two o'clock Saturday afternoon 1776 was pealed out by the fire alarm and this was the signal that the Liberty Ball would be here in a hour and for the parade to form.

SCOUT DISPLAY FOR LIBERTY LOAN

One of the "livest" Liberty Loan displays to be seen in this city is that of Troop 5 of Boy Scouts, situated in front of their headquarters at St. John's parish house. There is seen the copy of the British tank, with just a place open from which to sell bonds. The great gray tank, filling almost the entire space in front of the church, is decorated with an American flag, a Scout flag, signal flags, all fluttering in the breeze. It further bears some of the Government Scout posters and slogans. There is also a fence of the posters, and at the northerly end of the space a Scout tent. Best of all there are many of the liveliest Scouts in the city in charge. They are hustlers for Uncle Sam as is proven by the fact that by Saturday night (the first day's finish) this troop had sold $10, 150 worth of bonds; more than half as much as they sold during the entire period of the last loan.

But they are by no means the only Scouts on the job. There is a full sized tent set up in front of the Kingston Club, with a fine display of Boy Scout "first aid" outfit, stretcher and all. Here, too, one sees the big Scout sign and the posters. This display and place of sale for bonds is in charge of Troop 6, which is also hustling for Uncle Sam. Other troops may have equally interesting displays in evidence before the day is over.

Patriotic Music.

Even the hurdy gurdy has caught the patriotic spirit, and nearly all of the tunes rendered this season are patriotic ones. "Over There" still retains its popularity. A hurdy gurdy was playing this tune Saturday morning on Fair street and soon a number of persons were whistling it.

Every spud a bulley.

Philippine Burial.
One of the strange customs of the Igorrotes in the Philippines, when a woman dies, is to ornament her with her best finery in clothes, beads, and headress, and set the body up in state for a day prior to burial. In this pose the mother, especially, attends and mourns over the body. The men when they die or are killed, are buried without this lying-in-state ceremony.

Tribute to Friendship.
"Friends," said John Hay, "are the sunshine of life. All men seek sunlight, and every man seeks a friend after his own kind and nature. The best and most intelligent of us admit the rarity and value of friendship; the worst and most ignorant of us are unsiftingly the better for knowing some friendly companion."—Atlantic Monthly.

The Old-Time Cord.
The most common method of making cord wood is to cut the trees into four-foot lengths with an ax and split the larger pieces. The pieces are then piled in a standard cord, which is eight feet long, four feet high and four feet wide. The contents are 128 cubic feet, of which 70 per cent is wood and 30 per cent air. This is the old-fashioned regulation cord of wood.

Happiness in Love of Books.
No matter what his rank or position may be, the lover of books is the richest and happiest of the children of men.—Langford.

ODDS AND ENDS.

Miss Hess has moved her hairdressing and manicuring parlors from 312 Main street to 292 Fair street, opposite Hotel Stuyvesant.

The regular monthly meeting of the Ladies' Aid Society of St. James M. E. Church, will be held Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock in the church parlors.

The ladies who are making Red Cross hospital garments under the directions of Mrs. Hayes will meet this evening as usual in Red Cross headquarters. Although the class has grown the past two weeks many more workers are needed.

The King's Daughters of the Clinton Avenue M. E. Church will hold an all day social at the home of Mrs. Emmett Silkworth, 350 Hasbrouck avenue, Tuesday. Those who are unable to attend in the morning are invited to come in the afternoon. Please bring thimbles.

The regular monthly meeting of the Parent-Teachers' Association of school No. 4 will be held Tuesday evening at 7:30 o'clock in the school building. The president, Mrs. W. R. Anderson will read her report of the spring conference held in Poughkeepsie. Professor R. J. Service of the high school faculty will give a talk on gardens. A full attendance is desired.

ASHOKAN.

Ashokan, April 29.—The Ladies' Aid Society will hold their monthly business meeting on Thursday afternoon, May 2nd, at the home of Miss Bertha Greene.

Miss Dorothy Every and Miss Blanche Hughes spent a couple of days in Kingston the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. John Davis spent Sunday with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. Herrick, of West Hurley.

The Rev. G. O. Wilser returned home from Catskill on Saturday after spending the week with his family, also making much needed improvements on his place there.

The Rev. Mr. Miller of Albany gave a most interesting lecture on the work of the Civic League in the M. E. church on Sunday which was largely attended.

Seized With Convulsions.

Saturday evening about 10 o'clock Mrs. Tillie Wrenn of No. 47 Newkirk avenue was seized with convulsions near 438 Hasbrouck avenue. She was attended by Dr. Bongartz and later removed to her home in the city ambulance.

BUY LIBERTY BOND SAYS LIEUT. DE VALL

Ulster County soldier Many Years in the Army Writes From France to Urge Purchase of Liberty Bonds.

Somehow in France,
April 1, 1918.

Dear Friend:

At last we are in position to appreciate in a measure, the real import and purpose of the war. With our own eyes we have seen the results of nearly four years of the great World Conflict, and more than ever we are resolved, as a people, cheerfully and willingly, do our "bit" to bring permanent and lasting victory on the side of the free and true universal human race.

Our great government, of which you and I are a part, has a responsibility which we must all help assume. Unhesitatingly, I am doing my part to the very best of my ability, and know you are anxious to do your part, too.

The Third Liberty Loan Campaign starts April 30 and will last for three or four weeks. It is important not only to me personally, but to every American soldier, that this loan be fully subscribed in record time. The Great Spring Drive is on over here, and every one of the boys is hoping the folks at home will stand back of us morally to the last ditch. This means BUY A LIBERTY BOND. Urge your friends and our friends to BUY A LIBERTY BOND.

If you really appreciate what this small service to our country means, Liberty Bonds will be mighty scarce right off the bat.

I am interested in knowing how you feel about it. Will you let me know?

With every good wish, as ever,
Fraternally,

JOHN R. DE VALL,
1st Lieut. 128th Inf.,
A. E. F.

John R. Devall enlisted in the Marines at Brooklyn, N. Y., in 1907, served four years, enlisted in the regulars in 1914 and served four years on the border and sailed for France in February. He is the son of Mrs. M. A. Devall of Mt. Tremper. He was commissioned first lieutenant last May. Lieutenant Devall was home in February for one day for the first in 11 years.

GEARY KNOCKED DOWN BY AUTO

Was Alighting From a Trolley Car When Ford Driven by Miss Mildred Walton Struck Him—Member of Fire Department.

Fireman William J. Geary, of the Central Fire Station, was knocked down and injured this morning by an automobile driven by Miss Mildred Walton of Lucas township. Fortunately Mr. Geary was not as seriously injured as thought at first.

He was just alighting from a trolley car on the corner of East O'Reilly street on his way to the fire station when hit. He was removed to the Central Fire Station and Dr. Daniel Connolly, summoned, who had him removed to the Kingston City Hospital, where it was found that no bones were broken, but he had been severely shaken up. Later he left the hospital for his home.

The auto that struck him was a Ford. The driver, Miss Walton, was on her way to the high school.

Our Growing Population.

Mr. and Mrs. John Miller of Cedar street, are receiving congratulations over the arrival of a daughter at their home. While they have been blessed with sons they had never before had a girl and the attending physician with a smile suggested that if the Stark left a girl this time it be named Liberty Bell. Sure enough Mr. Stark deposited a baby girl, and the parents adopted the physician's suggestion somewhat by naming the babe Loretta Belle.

Theodore Roosevelt Brown has arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Henry Brown at 56 West Strand.

Mr. and Mrs. John Troy are receiving congratulations over the arrival of a boy at their home, No. 60 East Strand.

Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Bowers of No. 79 Abel street, are receiving congratulations over the arrival of a girl at their home.

MAGUIRE IS IN SOUTH CAROLINA

Lamar Crawford has received the following letter from F. Maguire, who is doing his bit. Mr. Maguire, at present is in South Carolina but expects to soon go "over there."

Dear friend:
I am writing a few lines of thanks to you in appreciation for those articles that you sent to me through the Red Cross, and I don't know how to tell you how glad I was to receive them. Everything you sent is mighty useful to a soldier.

We are expecting to go overseas soon, but I don't know just when. This branch of the service I am in is something new. We are the first regiment of its kind organized in the U. S. we will be equipped with motor trucks instead of horses.

I enlisted in the field artillery and since then have been in the first regiment of its kind organized in the U. S. we will be equipped with motor trucks instead of horses.

I am not used to writing letters and I hardly know what to write about. I will always remember your kindness and if our command comes back, and we all expect it, I will go to Kingston to see you. It is nearly time for taps, so I will have to quit. I wish you the best of good luck.

DINNER GIVEN AT THE EAGLE HOTEL

By Mayor Canfield and Others in Honor of the Members of the Liberty Coach Party.

The Liberty Coach arrived in Kingston about five o'clock Saturday afternoon. Admiral Higginson and Mrs. Higginson and Mayor Canfield met the coach party at Lake Katrine and rode in to Kingston on the coach. An informal dinner was given Saturday evening at the Eagle Hotel. It was just a get together affair and there were no speeches made.

Those at the dinner were, besides the members of the coach party, Mayor Canfield and Mrs. Canfield, Justice Hasbrouck and Mrs. Hasbrouck, R. E. Leighton and Mrs. Leighton, D. G. Atkins, Mr. and Mrs. Elva H. Bocar.

Interesting incidents of the trip were told by the different members of the coach party. In every city the Liberty Coach and Liberty Bell were given a great reception, and resulted in stimulating the sale of Liberty Bonds.

Frank D. Lyon, one of the members of the coach party, spoke at the high school auditorium Saturday night when the war pictures were shown.

Mr. Lyon was introduced by Mayor Canfield. Mr. Lyon proved to be an interesting speaker and his address was listened to with close attention. An inspiring address was also made by Justice Hasbrouck.

Drum Corps to Meet.

There will be an important meeting this evening of the Bailey Fife and Drum Corps and every member is urged to attend. The organization needs more fife and drum players and would like to hear from young men who can play either of these. Arrangements will also be made this evening for the music to be furnished by the corps at the parade Tuesday morning in honor of the conscripts.

"The Little Sinner."

This evening, "The Little Sinner," a drama in four acts, will be presented by the Knights of St. John at St. Peter's Hall. The performance begins at 8 o'clock and will be followed by dancing music being furnished by Prof. Senecalbach. There will also be refreshments. The entertainment will be repeated on Tuesday evening.

HIS BACK BROKEN WHEN CAR STARTS

John Terpinia, of Union County, was badly injured Sunday when he was run down by his own automobile. Mr. Terpinia has been working employees between the powder mills at Fort Owen to their homes at various sections of the town of Hopous. At Rifton he was cranking a car when it suddenly started for him before he could get out of the way and knocked him down. His back was broken and his condition considered serious. He was removed to his home and attended by G. W. Root of Port Jervis.

COMPANY M WILL DINE AND SMOKE

Company M will celebrate the anniversary of their marching away to war by a dinner and smoker to be held May 2 at Cuno's Hotel at Lake Katrine. Automobiles will leave the armory at 6 o'clock this afternoon and it is expected they will arrive at the hotel at 7 o'clock. The committee in charge of the affair are: Edwin H. Hays, Joseph M. Fowler and George Winter.

KNOCKED DOWN BY MOTORCYCLE

Late Saturday afternoon John Kroszanski, 6 years old, of Mendon, was knocked down on Broad street by a motorcycle driven by a young man named Parlow. The boy was removed to the Kingston City Hospital where it was found he had a fractured skull. He is now recovering Sunday that he was removed to his home.

Police Arrest Two.

Sunday Detective Goodsell of the West Shore arrested John Santor, 17 years old, of Hackensack, N. J., who he found riding on the pier of a passenger steamer. This morning in police court John said he had come north seeking a job, but not finding one was on his way home. He was without money and was to steal a ride back. He was given a fine of $10.00. He was arrested by Officer Fout for driving his motorcycle on the pier on the left hand side. Justice Schrick fined him $10.00 which he paid.

GERMAN PASTOR URGES LIBERTY LOAN

And Not in Vain as He Sold $1,250 in Bonds at Sunday Meeting in Spring Street Lutheran Church.

The Rev. A. Schmidt, pastor of the Spring Street German Lutheran Church, Sunday morning invited his congregation to remain at the close of the service to give him a chance to comply with the request of the government made to pastors and churches throughout the country to make an appeal for the Third Liberty Loan. The large congregation remained and Pastor Schmidt made the following eloquent appeal: "It is the imperative duty of every citizen to support the government in this critical hour. Every citizen has to bear his share of the burdens which war brings upon our nation. We have to pay war taxes on many things, and our sons have to serve our country as soldiers. All this is compulsory, and without such compulsion the war could not be carried on. But there is an opportunity to serve our country voluntarily and this is the better service. A large part of the enormous war expense must be defrayed by free will contributions. Every citizen must be willing and ready to make sacrifices without being compelled to do so. And we citizens of German birth or German origin do not lag behind our fellow citizens. We must prove it, and it gives me great pleasure to be able to say without fear of contradiction that the bulk of the large German population in this country numbering over 25,000,000, prove it. They are proving that they are as patriotic and as loyal as those whose ancestors came to this country on the Mayflower, and as those who act and speak as if they were the only true Americans. Men of German blood helped Washington to establish the liberty of this country, and helped Lincoln to preserve the Union, and today they do all they can for the country of their adoption. Not with many words and bombastic speeches or rousing sermons, but with deeds. Let us prove our loyalty and thereby put to silence those who confound the innocent with the guilty; the loyal with the disloyal; who forget that even in the heat against the enemy it is for Americans to keep sane and to fight fair as our fathers did. The narrowness and prejudice of some historical patriots is absolutely at variance with American principles and traditions. Only a few days yet and the drive for the Third Liberty Loan is up. Those who have not secured a Liberty Bond should do so at once. I am ready to receive subscriptions at my study, and request you to see me at any time from now until the fourth of May."

It is reported that Pastor Schmidt secured subscriptions to Liberty Bonds amounting to $1,250 at one of his members. This morning Pastor Schmidt received the following communication from the treasury department of the Liberty Loan Legion:

"Dear Sir—We acknowledge receipt of your application for membership in the Liberty Loan Legion, and take pleasure in notifying you that you are now a member of those thousands of loyal people who serve at home. We are enclosing you a copy of membership which identifies you as having performed a very valuable service to your country."

Meeting of The Winners.
The regular monthly meeting of the Winners Class of Clinton Avenue M. E. Sunday School will be held on Wednesday evening, May 1, at the home of Jay W. Rifenbary, 27 Elmendorf street. A large attendance is desired.

Thoughts like these:—
"At home they are raising the Third Liberty Loan. It's a lot of money—billions of dollars. Yet somehow dollars don't look as big over here as they used to, back home.
My idea of Big things has changed!
Food and warm clothes, ships, guns, shells, medicine, bandages, ambulances, aeroplanes—Victory—they're the Big Things over here.
For we've got to carry on and end this hell—forever.
And this idea about the Big Things must get across to the folks at home. They know we're out for Victory—they won't fail us. Of course they'll buy Liberty Bonds!"

A million men, our husbands, our sons, our brothers, are thinking thoughts like these.

We must be worthy of their faith in us.

This space donated by the Standard Oil Company of N. Y.

We must buy Liberty Bonds.

INJURED CHASING GANG OF ROWDIES
Grand street shortly after midnight Sunday morning. The gang were making the night hideous with their racket and Officer Dempsey went after them. They scattered and ran, but the officer before he fell managed to capture the bat of one of the gang. All of the gang are known and there is a probability that there will be further developments in the case. Officer Dempsey was injured shortly after 1 o'clock but gamely continued on duty until 3:40, when he had to give up. Police Surgeon Norwood had him removed to his home. The injury to the knee is said to be severe and he will likely be laid up for some time.

COMMERCIAL

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

New York, April 28.—The feature of the trading at the beginning of business on the stock market today was the scant offering of all classes of stocks. There was a moderate demand which caused advances in the first few minutes on a small volume of business, but after that period the market was soon again in a waiting disposition and some recessions were noted. Steel Common opened 1/2 higher at 95 1/2, and reacted to 94 1/2. Inspiration also made a gain of 1/4 to 92 1/2, and small fractional gains were made in Anaconda and American Smelting. Distillers became prominent, moving up 1/4 to 61 1/2, and Industrial Alcohol rose 1/4 to 124 1/4. Some of the railroad stocks were established at moderately higher levels, Union Pacific making a gain of 1/4 to 118 1/4; Southern Railway 1/4 to 31, and New Haven 1/4 to 39. Baldwin Locomotive yielded 1/4 at the opening to 80.

Liberty 4's sold at 95.75 while the 3 1/2's were trading at 93.20.

Strength was shown throughout the forenoon. Steel Common rose 1/4 to 95 1/2. New Haven advanced 1/4 to 39 1/2. Corn products were up 1/4 to 39 1/2. Distillers rose one point to 61 1/2. Liberty Bonds were strong, the 3 1/2's moving up to 99.24, and the 4's to 96.82.

Business dwindled away to a small volume during the afternoon, only a few transactions being made in the usual active issues. Prices were fairly well maintained however. Distillers Securities, after selling down to 50 1/2, moved up to 51 1/2. International Paper was in supply, dropping 1/4 to 33 1/2 and Marine Preferred dropped one point to 88. Steel Common held steady around 95.

The market closed dull today; government bonds unchanged; railway and other bonds steady.

Recent Deaths and Funerals of Persons in This Vicinity.

John O'Connor, for many years an employee of the Sangerettes Manufacturing Co., died Saturday at his home on Partition street, Sangerettes, after a lingering illness. He is survived by three daughters, all of Sangerettes.

The funeral of the late William MacMullen, who died at his home on Barclay Heights, Sangerettes, Friday, was held at Trinity Episcopal Church on Sunday afternoon, and was largely attended. Washington Hook and Ladder Company, of which he was a member, attended in a body. Rev. Thomas Cole officiated. Interment was in Trinity Cemetery.

Thomas W. Aikenhead, 88 years old, died at his home in Newburgh Saturday. He was born in Scotland. He was at one time in partnership with E. Milten of the firm of E. Milten and Company of this city and New York and in later years with Milten, Aikenhead and Company and Milten Aikenhead Inc. The funeral will be held Tuesday and the factory in this city will remain closed that day.

Marcelina Park died at the home of her sister-in-law, Mrs. Mary Park, No. 3 Clinton avenue, Sunday morning. She is survived by one brother, John, of Walden. The funeral will be held from the residence of Mrs. Park Wednesday morning at 8 o'clock. Interment in Walkhill Valley Cemetery, Walden. Services will be held Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock from St. Andrew's Episcopal Church, Walden.

Mary Josephine Melville died at the residence of her parents Saturday. Besides her parents she is survived by six brothers, John, a soldier, who is stationed at Spartanburg, S. C., Thomas, Edward, William, Albert and Woodrow, at home, and one sister, Catherine, also at home. The funeral will take place from the residence of her parents, No. 1 Ponchockie street, Wednesday morning at 8 o'clock and from St. Mary's Church at 9:30, where a requiem mass will be offered for the repose of her soul. Interment in the family plot in St. Mary's Cemetery. Miss Melville was a graduate of St. Mary's School and of Spencer's Business School. She had recently passed the civil service examination and accepted a government position in Washington. She had a host of friends who will mourn her loss.

The funeral of Jacob Frear was held at his late home on Main street, Ellenville, Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock. A large attendance of relatives and friends were at the service, which was conducted by Rev. J. A. Appleby, of the M. E. Church. The subject of his very excellent remarks was from Genesis 15:15: "And thou shalt go to thy fathers in peace. Thou shalt be buried in a good old age." A high tribute was paid to the life of the deceased, who had passed his 97th year. Guy I. Gould and Miss Carolyn Clark sang two beautiful selections. The bearers were friends of deceased, James Myers, Albert Fuller, Lewis N. Edsall, Gilbert H. Frances, Thomas Van Dusen and Herbert Thyson. The floral tributes of friends and relatives were beautiful. The grandsons, Harry and Howard Frear, with their wives were present from Schenectady. Relatives and friends were present from Summitville, Pine Bush and Ulster Heights.

LIBERTY CROP TO OFFSET UKRAINE

Control of the food producing resources of the Ukraine promises to be of decided advantage to the morale of the enemy.

An endeavor must be promptly made by all the Allies to counteract this; the enemy's forced food levy from the Ukraine must be met by a free-will offering, by an American Liberty Crop.

As a means toward this end it would suggest that each state in the Union, through properly authorized committees and through contributions and voluntary services, should for the harvest years of 1918 and 1919 raise food products on its public state lands, and on the national lands within its boundaries. Said food products to be known as the "Liberty Crop," to be delivered to the warehouses designated, and to be tendered by the states, free of charge, as a free-will offering to the United States Government and to the Allies. The United States Government to apportion this "Liberty Crop" between itself and its Allies.

It is suggested that the approximate value of the Liberty Crop should be fixed either at a minimum of $50,000,000 (two hundred and fifty million dollars) or at a maximum of $100,000,000 (one hundred million dollars) for each year. If all this is to be done, a resolution should at once be passed by the United States Congress authorizing the states to use the national public lands for this purpose, and further empowering the president to take up the matter of the proposed Liberty Crop with the governors of the several states, when:

1. Each governor shall summon meetings of farmers, business men, and others in his state, who shall form committees, which are to be empowered to proceed with the details of the work, all on a volunteer basis, free of charge, excepting in the case of laborers performing the field work of cultivating and harvesting.

2. No funds for this purpose shall be obtained from contributions collected by the committees from the people generally.

3. States having but a small area of public lands could contribute an equivalent toward these Liberty Crops by subscriptions in money, by the loan of agricultural implements and machinery, and by the application of labor.

4. To perpetuate the memory of this event, Congress could authorize suitable mementos in the form of medals, engravings, or "Liberty Stars," to be presented to each state contributing its ratio to the Liberty Crop.

LARGE CROWD SEES THE LIBERTY BALL

Couch Arrived Late—Parade and Demonstration Held in Honor of These Symbols of Freedom—Couch Party Stayed Here Saturday Night.

The Liberty Ball, on its journey from Buffalo to New York, arrived here about three o'clock Saturday afternoon and was given a stirring reception. The Liberty Couch also arrived, but not until some time after the ball. It was said that a bulky horse was the cause of the delay.

Under a line of American flags strung across Albany avenue the ball rolled by. Boy Scouts crossed the city line and after only a short delay the parade started.

The parade was composed of Company M, Pratt Post, No. 127, G. A. R.; Colonial Camp, Spanish War Veterans, No. 75; Old Guard of Ulster County; Tappan Camp, No. 57, Sons of Veterans; Ladies' Auxiliary, Tappan Camp, No. 53, S. of V.; officers and men in active federal service; high school boys and girls; scouts; police, superintendent and principals of schools; business and professional men; civic and fraternal societies; committee on arrangements; Colonial City Band; Bailey Pipe and Drum Corps.

The parade started on Albany avenue, at the city line and the line of march was to St. James street, to Broadway, to the Rhinecliff ferry.

Business places and houses along the line of march were decorated with the national colors, and nearly every person marching carried or wore a small American flag.

Hundreds of spectators lined the streets. The Liberty Ball, of course, was the big feature and many comments were heard relative to this novel symbol of liberty.

Many were disappointed at not seeing the Liberty Couch. When it did not come with the Liberty Ball many persons thought that the couch would not be here, and they did not wait for it.

At the Rhinecliff ferry the ball was put on the tug "Rob" and conveyed to Rhinecliff, where it was met by Boy Scouts and rolled to Rhinebeck.

The passengers on the couch stayed in Kingston Saturday night, at the Eagle Hotel. They were: Maurice Howlett, Paris, France; Miss Hollins, East Islip, L. I.; Frank D. Lyon, Rinehampton, N. Y.; Mrs. Arthur Iselin, New York.

The party went to Rhinebeck Sunday morning. At Rhinebeck they were met by a delegation of motorists who accompanied them to Rhinebeck.

At two o'clock Saturday afternoon 1776 was pealed out by the fire alarm and this was the signal that the Liberty Ball would be here in a hour and for the parade to form.

SCOUT DISPLAY FOR LIBERTY LOAN

One of the "liveliest" Liberty Loan displays to be seen in this city is that of Troop 5 of Boy Scouts, situated in front of their headquarters at St. John's parish house. There is seen the copy of the British tank, with just a place open from which to sell bonds. The great gray tank, filling almost the entire space in front of the church, is decorated with an American flag, a Scout flag, signal flags, all fluttering in the breeze. It further bears some of the Government Scout posters and slogans. There is also a fence of the posters, and at the northerly end of the space a Scout tent. Best of all there are many of the liveliest Scouts in the city in charge. They are hustlers for Uncle Sam as is proven by the fact that by Saturday night (the first day's finish) this troop had sold $10,150 worth of bonds; more than half as much as they sold during the entire period of the last loan.

But they are by no means the only Scouts on the job. There is a full sized tent set up in front of the Kingston Club, with a fine display of Boy Scout "first aid" outfit, stretcher and all. Here, too, one sees the big Scout sign and the posters. This display and place of sale for bonds is in charge of Troop 6, which is also hustling for Uncle Sam. Other troops may have equally interesting displays in evidence before the day is over.

BEFORE JUDGE JENKINS.

Many Out Sunday.

Motorists and pedestrians took advantage of the ideal weather Sunday and were out in large numbers. Many bikers were out on the country roads in this vicinity. It was the pleasantest Sunday we have had in several weeks.

SAUGERTIES.

Saugerties, April 29.—The Liberty Ball and Couch on its trip from Buffalo to New York arrived in Saugerties Saturday noon. It was greeted by a large crowd. Addresses were made by Hon. Frank Lyon, former deputy state highway commissioner, Supl. E. R. James of the Saugerties schools and Hon. J. W. Boyle of Saugerties. The speakers were introduced by John A. Snyder, chairman of the Liberty Loan committee of Saugerties. The coaching party were taken to the Maxwell House for luncheon at 3 o'clock. They left for Kingston, stopping at Glasco, where Rev. James A. Talbot and Frederick E. W. Darrow spoke.

Miss Elizabeth Brown, nurse at the tuberculosis camp, visited her parents on Partition street Sunday.

Miss Harriet Greene of New Jersey, is a guest at the Maxwell House. Mrs. Vincent of Catskill, spent Sunday with Rev. and Mrs. Thomas Cole of Barclay Heights.

Miss Gertrude Jones of Barclay Heights, is visiting in West Point.

Mrs. William Wilson of Division street is visiting her daughter in Montreal, Canada.

James Derby is ill at the home of his sister, Mrs. D. J. Smith, on Washington avenue.

Charles Dickhout of the U. S. Aero Corps, spent Sunday with his parents on Washington avenue.

Employees of the Novelty Paper Co. presented Harry McCarthy, a fellow employee, who leaves for Camp Dix Tuesday morning, with a wrist watch and safety razor.

Mr. and Mrs. William Wolven and child of Jane street, have returned from New Jersey.

Miss Henrietta Finger of New York city, spent Sunday with her sister, Mrs. Edward Styles, on Main street.

Samuel D. Scudder, Jr., of the Naval Reserve Corps, spent Sunday evening in town.

Patriotic Music.

Even the hurdy gurdy has caught the patriotic spirit, and nearly all of the tunes rendered this season are patriotic ones. "Over There" still retains its popularity. A hurdy gurdy was playing this time Saturday morning on Fair street and soon a number of persons were whistling.

Every spud a bullet.
